159th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
MONDAY, MAY 3, 1943, 5 P. M.

The One Hundred and Fifty-ninth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled as above in accordance with the Resolution of the Last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Convention to order and requested the Bishop Coadjutor to open the Session with Prayer.

A Quorum being present, the Rev. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. John R. Huggins appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. James M. Niblo presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5.30 P. M. on Tuesday, May 4, 1943, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7.45 P. M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 5, 1943, at 9.30 A. M.

The Rev. Albert F. Fischer, Jr., presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Superintendent of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Secretary reported as follows:

The Secretary of the Convention reports:

That the Rev. Richard J. Morris, Secretary of Convention, resigned owing to ill health, July 31, 1942, and the Rev. Charles H. Long was elected Secretary of Convention by the Standing Committee, to take effect August 1, 1942.

That since his election he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 3rd he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention.

That Parochial Reports were mailed January 7th and that on February 1st, when these reports were due, very few out of the 224 due had been received. The Secretary would bring to your attention the necessity for making full returns on the Annual Report blank since these figures are required for the Report to the General Convention.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is the Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1942:

(1) Amendments to Constitution of the General Church.
(2) Report of the Committee on Seal of the Diocese.
(3) Report of the Committee on Clergy Placement.
(4) Report of the Committee on Presbyterian Concordat.

That on May 3rd Parishes, Missions and Chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in this Convention had not qualified as follows:

The following Parishes have not sent in a Parish Report for 1942:
St. Luke, Newtown; St. Mary Pro-Cathedral.

The following Missions have not sent in a Parish Report for 1942:
St. John the Evangelist, Essington; St. Mary, Chester.

Of the 136 Parishes the following have not sent in Certificates for Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention:
St. John, New London, Kelton; St. John, Concord; St. George, Ardmore.

Of the 30 Missions entitled to a Lay Deputy the following have not sent Certificates for a Lay Deputy and therefore have no Lay Deputy in this Convention:
Advent (Polish), Philadelphia; Ascension, Rhawnhurst; All Souls, Philadelphia; Holy Redeemer (Polish), Philadelphia; St. George, Richmond; St. John, Essington; St. Mary the Annunciation, Philadelphia; Transfiguration.

Of the 17 Chapels entitled to a Lay Representative the following have not sent in a Certificate for a Lay Representative and therefore have no Lay Representative in this Convention:

Christ Church, Upper Merion; Nativity Chapel, Germantown; Phillips Brooks Memorial Chapel, Philadelphia; St. Peter Church, Weldon.

The following Parishes and Missions have not paid the Assessment for the Episcopate:

Advent Mission (Polish); Holy Redeemer Mission; St. James, Hestonville; St. John, Chrysostom; St. John, Free; St. Luke, Kensington; St. Mark, Honeybrook; St. Mary, Manayunk; Trinity, Ambler.

The following Parishes and Missions have not paid the Assessment for the Convention and Diocesan Expense:

Advent Mission (Polish); All Souls Mission, Philadelphia; Holy Redeemer (Polish) Mission; St. James, Hestonville; St. John, Chrysostom; St. John, Free; St. Luke, Kensington; St. Mark, Honeybrook; Trinity, Ambler.

The following Parishes and Missions have not paid the Assessment for the Rectors' Salaries and Pensions:

Advocate, Philadelphia; All Saints, Crescentville; Christ, Franklinville; Grace and The Incarnation; St. Andrew, Philadelphia Divinity School; St. James, Hestonville; St. John, Chrysostom; St. Luke, Kensington; St. Mark, Honeybrook; Trinity, Ambler.

The Rev. Francis C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. Resolved, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes and Missions which have not sent in Parochial Reports, or have not paid the Episcopal or the Diocesan Expense Assessments for 1942 be declared forfeited.

2. Whereas, The Parish of St. Luke's, Kensington, following the Standing Resolution of the Convention, has explained to the satisfaction of the Executive Council its failure to pay the assessments for 1942.

Resolved, That the right to vote in this Convention of St. Luke's Parish, Kensington, be forthwith restored.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of the Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. George Copeland — The Rev. C. B. DuBell

The Rev. J. R. Logan, Sr.

Claims of the Laity to Seats:

Mr. W. I. Rutter, Jr. — Mr. J. L. Evans

Mr. C. R. Woodruff

The Committee on Elections presented the Report:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 238 Clerical Deputies, according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 136 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies and to Vicars (1 each) for the Missionary Lay Deputies.

That from the 178 Preliminary Ballots returned, the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date April 26th, and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the Elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The first Ballot will be taken at 10 A. M. on May 4th.

For the Committee,

Charles H. Long, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Hartshorne moved that the Proviso in paragraph 2 be removed, which was carried.

The Proposed Amendment as altered was lost on a Vote by Division: Ayes 116, Noes 180.

Dr. Hartshorne offered amendment to the Canon on Courtesy by changing the words "Superintendent" to "Executive Officer" before the words "of the City Mission." This amendment was adopted.

The Hon. Clinton R. Woodruff read the REPORT OF THE ADVISERS FOR THE JEFFRIES HOME and presented by Title the REPORT OF THE JUDGE AND MASTER. (Appendix Q, page 324.)

On motion the Report was accepted and the Advisers continued.

The Rev. George A. Trowbridge presented a Resolution approving Senate Resolution No. 100 concerning Starving Children, which Resolution was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

WHEREAS, Millions of children are perishing from systematic undernourishment and starvation in the occupied countries of Europe, and

WHEREAS, Senators Robert A. Taft and Guy M. Gillette have introduced Senate Resolution 100 urging the government of the United States, in co-operation with the British Government and the governments of Sweden and Switzerland, to work out an immediate extension of the Greek experiment within that country, and to other countries where there is drastic need; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Secretary, on behalf of this Convention, request Senator Tom Connally, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee, to hold hearings on Senate Resolution 100 as soon as possible.

The REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL was presented by Title. (Appendix F, page 239.)

The Rev. Stanley R. West called attention to the account of Missionary General Fund and the Rev. Frederick W. Blatz spoke of the Department of Christian Education.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop bade the Convention to Noon-day Prayers.

The Special Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. Charles W. Shreiner, Chairman of the Field Department, addressed the Convention concerning the work of the Department and presented the following Rector and Vicars who spoke of their respective parishes: The Rev. Messrs. Ernest Sydnor Thomas, Rector of St. Barnabas' Church, Germantown; Mark Mills Garcia, Vicar, Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale; Charles F. Ehly, Vicar, Trinity Church, Buckingham, and Trinity Mission, Solebury; Arthur C. Moore, Vicar, St. Cyprian's Mission, Elmwood, and St. Monica's Mission; Paul R. R. Reinhardt, Vicar, St. James's Mission, Prospect Park.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the REPORT.

THE REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE
(Appendix D, page 197)

Mr. W. P. Barba presented the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, We believe that the proper settlement of the great problem of the post-war world, namely, the prevention of future wars, is as vital as the winning of the war; and

WHEREAS, Such plans require a much advanced conception of Christian obligations on the part of the nations of the world; and

WHEREAS, It is the duty of Christian churches to further such plans; and

WHEREAS, It is essential to the success of such plans that the United States shall assume its full share of responsibility therefor.

RESOLVED, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania memorialize the coming General Convention urging upon the President and Congress of the United States the great desire of the Protestant Episcopal Church that our country shall assume its full share of responsibility for the plans that may be decided upon by the United Nations to accomplish the purpose aforesaid.

The Rev. John C. Roak presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CHURCH UNITY

(PRESBYTERIAN CONCORDAT)

and offered the following Resolution:

1. RESOLVED, That this Convention commends the document of the Joint Commission on Approaches to Unity known as "Basic Principles" as a basis of continued negotiations towards fulfilling the declared purpose of General Convention to achieve organic union between the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America and the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America;

That the Joint Commission be asked to confer further to frame specific legislation in order that it may be seen what is concretely involved in the proposals contained in the document entitled "Basic Principles";

That the Joint Commission be requested to seek the advice and counsel of the Lambeth Conference concerning these and any subsequent proposals which may be made;

That the Joint Commission be asked to recommend in what ways the people of the two Churches may be more fully informed on matters of faith, worship and government as they are held in the two Churches; and may be further informed as to the need for unity in the Church of God.

2. RESOLVED, That this Commission be continued for further study and report to the 1944 Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff presented the

MINORITY REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CHURCH UNITY

and moved that the Minority Report be substituted for the Report of the Commission.

The Minority Report was substituted for the Majority Report by a vote by division: Ayes, 223; Noes, 90.

The Report was substituted and the following Resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED, That our Convention be asked to approve continuation of our conversations with Presbyterians in regard to organic union.

The Rev. J. Jarden Guenther reported that the COMMITTEE ON THE RELATION OF INSTITUTIONS OF THE DIOCESE TO THE CONVENTION, had one meeting with representatives of institutions and that the Committee was not prepared to make its report, and moved that it be continued to report in 1944. On vote approved that the Committee be continued.

Received from the Roman Church 95

Before I begin my address, I want to remember before God, and thank Him for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in His Saints who have been the choice vessels of His grace and the lights of the world in their generations. They are now in a nearer relation to Him and are also looking down upon us, and rejoicing in any conquests we are making in transforming the kingdoms of this world into the kingdom of our God and of His Christ.

Of the Bishops of the Church:

Samuel Gavitt Babcock	William Mercer Green
William Theodotus Capers	Peter Trimble Rowe

Of Priests of this Diocese:

Abel John Arkin	Richard Kemp
George Aaron Barton	Lewis Gouverneur Morris
Benjamin Stewart Bert	Granville Taylor
Henry B. Gorgas	Horace Andrews Walton

Of Lay Deputies to the Last Convention:

John Welsh Drayton	Charles A. Gill
Reese P. Davis	William Paul Morris
John T. Eplett	Gerald Powell

Of Lay Deputies to former Conventions:

Frederick Wistar Morris, Jr.	Franklin Van Meter Harding

Of Other Laymen and Laywomen:

Oscar O. Bean	Richard Vaux
Mrs. J. Alison Scott	Joseph Wayne, Jr.

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of Thy Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Grateful Farewell

This will be my last Convention Address as Bishop of Pennsylvania. I want to tell you what a joy my service has been to me. I believe that no Diocese has been more co-operative, and no people more affectionate than you have been to me. For this you have my hearty thanks and I have nothing but delight as I look back over my fourteen years as your Father in God, and I have tried to measure up to that high relation. My great aim has been in the words of St. Paul, "My little children, for whom I travail in birth until Christ be formed in you."

My opportunities for service in the Ministry were many. I was a member of the Standing Committee for twenty-five years; Dean of the Convocation of Chester, and held a department at the Church Training and Deaconess House the same length of time and several times was a Deputy to General Convention. So I have a good idea of the work of the Church and I love it.

The meeting of our Missionary apportionment is, and has been, the expression of the real work of the Church. The Church was founded that the work of Jesus Christ, performed in an obscure province, might be known to the whole world. He selected His Apostles and said to them, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature, baptizing them." A man who says "I have no interest in missions" is not only unmindful of the fact that had the Apostles felt that way, he would never have heard of Jesus Christ or of Christianity. Nor is he conscious of the fact that he at least is not following the Master's injunction. However helpful Christianity has been to him in his daily life, it is not to keep to himself. It is the soul that gives that is the soul that lives.

The Diocese Our Field

To turn to the work of the Diocese: We have a magnificent group of clergy and laity. We have six Convocations, each as large as many Dioceses. Over each one of these is a Dean, who gives careful consideration to its needs and opportunities. This work is done without financial remuneration. We are deeply indebted to each of these courageous and vigilant men. Then we have a Chancellor, Mr. Roland S. Morris, of rare ability, and always ready to serve. Our faithful Treasurer of many years, Mr. Arthur V. Morton, was obliged to resign because of ill health and the Assistant Treasurer, Mr. Frederick R. Drayton, was elected Treasurer. Our unfailing and devoted friend, Mr. Joshua Ash Pearson, was elected Assistant Treasurer. The Hon. Clinton Rogers Woodruff has given great distinction to our Social Service Department. We can never forget the faithful, efficient and devoted work of Mr. Spencer Ervin. We owe a great debt of gratitude to Dr. Henry D. Jump, who for many years has been ever ready to serve the Diocese in examining the Candidates for Holy Orders. He has given his time unstintingly to this work. No Diocese has finer Standing Committee nor one on whose advice the Bishop can more safely rely. Our Committee on Forward in Service and our War Commission are doing a valuable work. Bishop Hart will speak on the War Commission. Then comes our wonderful Woman's Auxiliary, than which no Diocese has a superior.

Our institutions are many, and are all doing faithful service. The magnificent Episcopal Hospital, worthy of the support of every member; the most efficient Home for Consumptives; the House of Rest for the Aged, that has given comfort to many; our splendid Church Farm School, that has sent forth so many fine young men; and innumerable other institutions indicative of faith and desire to help the world, and that are worthy of your support.

The supreme event of the year was the election of a Bishop Coadjutor. The service was spiritual. We prayed for the presence of God's Holy Spirit and undoubtedly He was with us. I feel that we probably secured the finest man in the American Church. No one was more happy over the selection than your Bishop. There was an entire absence of "electioneering." The various papers commented upon the election as a real religious event. I feel sure that everyone is happy to have secured such a talented man of God and one who will so unsparingly devote himself to the Diocese. I love to think of my work being turned over to him, knowing how faithfully it will be performed. I pray for him nightly as I hope he prays for me.

A Record of Services

In the past year I have dedicated:

A baptismal font cover in memory of the Rt. Rev. Samuel Babcock Booth, late Bishop of Vermont; a Church Service Flag in memory of Mr. Benjamin Chew; and Church Chancel Flags in St. Martin's Church, Radnor; the Wetherill Memorial Rectory and Chapel at St. Paul's Church, Chester.

I blessed Service Flags at St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh, and St. Stephen's Church, Clifton Heights.

On May 24th, St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, was consecrated.

On June 7th, Gloria Dei celebrated the 265th anniversary of the founding of the parish and the 242nd anniversary of the dedication of the church edifice.

One June 11th I was present and made an address at the 35th anniversary of the rectorship of the Rev. E. Sydnor Thomas, of St. Barnabas Church, Germantown.

On October 4th, I was present and made an address at the 40th anniversary of the rectorship of the Rev. Horace A. Walton, of Good Samaritan, Paoli.

I have instituted the following and on each occasion have preached the sermon:

May 28th—The Rev. Alfred W. Price, D.D., as Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia;

December 9th—The Rev. William Lanigan as Rector of St. Peter's Church, Phoenixville;

February 1st—The Rev. Herbert W. Jones as Rector of Zion Church, Philadelphia;

February 2nd—The Rev. George Christian Anderson as Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore.

Important Gifts

Legacies were given to the following churches and institutions:

To St. Thomas Church, Whitemarsh, $2,000 by Miss Emma Blakiston;

To St. Alban's Church, Olney, $1,000 by Miss Evelyn Hale Stocker;

To Calvary Church, Rockdale, $10,000 by Mrs. S. D. Riddle;

To St. James's Church, Prospect Park, $500 by the children of Mrs. J. C. Lukens;

To the Church of the Atonement, Philadelphia, an expenditure of $1,000 for two dossal curtains by Mr. Charles F. Wheeler; one dossal curtain by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sapp; one Processional Cross by the family of Mrs. Mary H. Wagner; one Church Flag by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hibbert;

To St. James Church, Downingtown, $500 from the estate of Lucy and Robert Parke in memory of their parents;

To the Episcopal Hospital, $1,350 by Mary J. Bryan.

Woman's Auxiliary

A deeper conviction, a more consecrated effort and more women becoming interested, are the facts that are apparent in the work of the Woman's Auxiliary during the past year. All pledges were met by the five standing committees in the Department of Missions and much missionary information and inspiration was received from returned missionaries from all parts of the world. All requests for missionary boxes, hospital and institutional supplies were filled.

The Department of Christian Social Relations has gone forward with an undaunted spirit to meet the thought and needs of these tremendous times.

A great step forward in the work was the formation of a joint committee with the Diocesan Department of Religious Education on Adult Education. A year-round study program, besides the mission study, has been provided and stressed. The interest of young women has been increased in the last year due to sectional meetings held in each Convocation of the Diocese. These meetings promoted fellowship and were highlighted by the organization of three new Junior Auxiliary groups. The organization and the work done by the Devotional Committee is most gratifying. Many hundreds of women have taken part in quiet days and retreats in many parts of the Diocese. The Committee for Service Men has been untiring in its endeavor to provide anything and everything that was suggested. Three specially worthwhile things were: the conduct of the War Commission office by Miss Emma Brehm on a volunteer basis since January, 1942—furnishing the altar in the side Chapel at the Navy Yard—providing 500 Forward Movement booklets for the Navy Yard. The United Thank Offering is increasing and reaching more women. Our endeavor has been to influence all women everywhere to eliminate all that is not vital in their church work and to assume a responsibility of knowing the work of their parish as a whole and doing everything possible to make it the perfect parish.

Department of Religious Education

The Department of Religious Education, during the past year, made an evaluation of its work. Activities were scrutinized to see if they were meeting the needs of the Diocese. This was felt to be a very valuable procedure for it insures against carrying on things after their usefulness has passed. Changes in programs were few but in an effort to co-ordinate the work of the 10 committees, they were grouped under three divisions—Children, Youth and Adult—with a chairman of each division. A Commission on Resource Materials was formed to do research and serve all the committees. Real strides were made in the field of Week-day Religious Education. Besides considerable research and study, the committee that has this phase of the work in charge has conducted an experimental school on released time with St. Stephen's, Clifton Heights. The biggest problem facing us in the growth of Week-day Religious Education is the lack of adequately trained teachers and leaders. This is also true of our Church School, Youth, and Vacation Church School work.

The Divinity School

The Divinity School is completing another successful year. There are 28 students in the undergraduate department, of whom seven are women, and 15 students in the graduate department, making a total enrollment of 43 students who are under the instruction of the faculty. Two additional Lecturers were appointed by the Boards for the year: The Rev. W. Russell Bowie, D.D., S.T.D., who lectures in Homiletics, and the Rev. Vincent F. Pottle, Th.M. who lectures in Greek. The prospects for the next academic year are hopeful, in spite of war conditions which seriously affect the college world. A number of new students in the Junior Class are expected and applications have been received for subsequent entrance as far in advance as 1946. We may hope, therefore, that while the enrollment in the war years may not be as large as in normal years, there will, however, be a reasonable number of students in each new Junior Class.

Episcopal Hospital

A summary of the activities of the Hospital during the past year, which ended December 31, 1942, has been compiled with the hope that the public and especially the communicants of the Diocese may be informed more fully upon some of the phases of this vital Church institution. The past twelve months, with our Nation at war, has added much to the complexities of hospital organization and administration. Thirty-four doctors and eighteen graduate nurses left the service of the hospital to join the armed forces. The loss of this number of the hospital's professional staff, which could not be replaced, necessitated greater endeavor on the part of the remaining staff in order that the increased number of patients would receive adequate care. The care of our civilian population is of paramount importance. Those physicians and nurses who have remained at the hospital are carrying on under great hardships. In the death of Dr. Granville Taylor on August 17, 1942, the hospital suffered a great loss. He was enthusiastic in his support of the hospital and untiring in his efforts not only as a Board member from 1928 until the time of his death, but in his work throughout the entire Diocese. For many years he sponsored the appeal for the Thanksgiving Day offering in the Diocese and in many other ways gave freely of his time to the hospital. Bishop Hart became a member of the Board of Managers on November 25, 1942, thereby evidencing his interest in the Church's healing ministry. A new phase of the hospital's ministry was the development of the Chaplain of an organized course in Pastoral Training. Fifteen theological students received during the year this intensive course in the understanding care of the sick. The position of Chaplain Resident also was created. Two clergymen desiring advanced training in Hospital Chaplainer took advantage of the opportunity thus offered and served a three months' residency. This kind of Pastoral Training gives the clergyman a deep understanding of the total work of the hospital and enabled him to be of greater service to it. On January 1, 1942, the hospital completed with the Kensington Hospital for Women the details of the arrangement for the association of the two hospitals. Through this arrangement a combined service of Obstetrics and Gynecology was created in the Episcopal Hospital and the Visiting Staffs of each institution received appointments to the staff of both hospitals. This step in organization is in line with the prevailing hospital policy throughout the country of having especially trained physicians in charge of each service, so that patients will receive the best possible care. The work of the hospital is a great Church activity and should command the full support of the Diocese. Thousands of needy patients receive from it each year the best of medical and nursing care. We thank the parishes and the individual communicants who constructively served the hospital during the past year through friendly acts and gifts of their resources.

In Conclusion

I am not unmindful of the fact that we are involved in a horrible war. We declared that the last war was a war to end all wars. It did not. There were two reasons. 1—The cupidity of men who wanted at once to have business relations with our erstwhile enemies. I believe that sin involves isolation. It separates us from God and has separated us from our happy relations with our fellowmen. There was a feeling the easiest way is the best and the moment they lay down their arms our enemies become our friends. A man breaks into our home, murders our wife and children and robs us of our possessions. We pursue the man, but the moment we reach him, we protect him and say "Now he is our friend." The law does not avenge a wrong but by imprisonment endeavors to give the law-breakers time and opportunity to repent. The law desires also to implant in him a fear of repeating his crime. I said to one of my vestry, a General in the late war, "I was sorry the armistice was on the field. I would like to see the enemy beaten back into his own land, that his country might know of his defeat." He said, "No, Bishop, if you had been there you would not have wanted to see one more man killed." That is true, but think of the thousands killed in this war because we did not emphasize defeat in that war. God moves in a mysterious way. All through life he is seeking to make Himself known to us. Two or three years ago, as President of the Pennsylvania Military College, I conferred the degree of Doctor of Aeronautical Science on Captain Edward V. Rickenbacker. Shipwrecked in this war, he was led to God. Adrift for 21 days in the Pacific, with no one but God to lean upon, he called in his despair for food, for water, for rescue. Each time, God answered those prayers. Although not accustomed to prayer, as soon as they were on shore they knelt down and gave thanks to God. There can be no atheist in rubber rafts. Now Captain Rickenbacker is determined to devote the rest of his life in declaring what God hath done for the children of men. Statesmanship is important, but it sometimes secures neither righteousness nor peace. Nineteen hundred years ago, Jesus Christ stood forth and said, "I am the light of the world. He that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life." Multitudes of men today in every walk of life are realizing that the only way to peace and righteousness is in following His life and precepts.

The most distinguished member of our Church, the first President of the United States, in his last message to his people, said, "Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."

It is this blessed religion that you and I can both preach and live. God grant that we may do it with mind and soul and strength. This is my parting prayer for the Diocese which I so deeply love and in which I have labored joyously for nearly three score years:

Rise up, O men of God!
Have done with lesser things,
Give heart, and soul, and mind and strength
To serve the King of Kings.

Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where his feet have trod.
As brothers of the Son of man,
Rise up, O men of God!

The Bishop Coadjutor's Address

A clergyman once told me that my faith had never been fully tried because I have never been a member of a convention that elected a bishop! Be that as it may, I felt that the spirit of your convention which elected me to this office was such that I dared not decline the call. I am deeply grateful for the way in which you have received me into your fellowship. I am happy in this year of training under Bishop Taitt. He has endeavored to acquaint me with some of the problems and opportunities and, out of his wisdom accumulated through years of faithful service, to guide me in meeting them for the good of the Diocese.

I most earnestly hope that we may always maintain a fine spirit of harmony in the Diocese. Screwtape, the archfiend, whose letters are being widely read, gives very sound advice, from the Devil's viewpoint, to a minor devil sent to wreck a life—"If your patient can't be kept out of the Church, he ought at least to be violently attached to some party within it. The real fun is working up hatred between those who say "mass" and those who say "holy communion." But for our ceaseless labour, the variety of usage within the Church of England might have become a positive hotbed of charity and humility." We have nothing to fear from a well-thought-out difference of opinion. If we put loyalty to our Lord ahead of our prejudices, we shall strengthen the bonds of our fellowship and make our Diocese a "hotbed of charity and humility."

We do not know what problems lie before us, but we do know that we are moving into an age which is bound to tax to the uttermost our faith, our courage and our wisdom. Severe readjustments will have to be made. You know better than I whether or not there are communities in the Diocese where we ought to have a strong and vigorous work where today we have none or one inadequately conducted. There may be other sections where combinations ought to be effected and perhaps certain pieces of work discontinued. None of this can be done by your bishops. They haven't the authority nor do they desire it. Our plans during the remaining war years and the period immediately thereafter should develop from an eager and sincere desire on the part of the whole Diocese to meet most effectively our God-given opportunities. From time to time I shall not hesitate to recommend to you policies which seem to me best calculated to strengthen the Diocese. I shall rely on your good judgment to accept or reject such proposals as you think best.

At Bishop Taitt's request I have undertaken the work as Chairman of our Diocesan War Commission. Your response to our appeal on March 28th has enabled the Diocese to contribute $17,918.59 to our national Army and Navy Commission and has given us $11,945.73 with which to do our local work. Within the bounds of this modest budget we hope to continue our work with the men and women of this Diocese who are serving in the armed forces of our country, to conduct the Diocesan Service Men's Club at St. Stephen's, to give assistance to parishes which are faced with opportunities for work with service men, to devise ways and means of ministering to those in defense industries, and to act as a clearing house for suggestions as to how we can best serve during this emergency.

Last year Bishop Taitt called your attention to the fact that "The Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate" is sadly insufficient. A strong committee will be appointed at this convention whose duty it will be to lead us in remedying this situation. I feel that the most desirable way would be through large or small gifts from every member of the Diocese. An occasional reminder to our people of the need and a request that they remember the Diocese in their wills will accomplish surprising results.

As announced in the April issue of The Church News, the Orphans' Court has directed that the Elizabeth B. Jefferies estate be administered, not to establish a home as provided in the will, but to apply the net income for the maintenance of old or infirm clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and their wives. Two or three things should be remembered. The Bishop of this Diocese has the right to suggest the beneficiaries to be selected and the amount and times of payments, but the final decision rests with the trustee, the Germantown Trust Company. Beneficiaries must be "old and infirm clergymen." Widows are not eligible to become beneficiaries. In consultation with the Germantown Trust Company, I have prepared a blank to be filled out by all applicants, and I shall be glad to furnish a blank to any clergyman desiring it and to talk over the whole matter with him. The income from the Fund will be ready for distribution in the early fall, but meanwhile a small grant could be made from the cash balance.

I should like to pay high tribute to those parishes which have reduced their local expenditures in order to be able to pay or overpay their missionary quotas. Throughout my ministry I have felt that the single pledge is an exceedingly dangerous thing. In the hands of an alert, unselfish and missionary minded vestry, it may represent a fine spirit of corporate responsibility. That has been demonstrated by several parishes in this Diocese, and I would not for a moment say anything that would detract from such a Christian spirit. But I do venture to urge you not to adopt a single pledge in your parish until you are spiritually ready to do so. The obvious advantage of the duplex pledge is that, if the quota is not paid in full, the rector has before him the challenge to harder work and prayer. In one of my parishes, the chairman of the finance committee was opposed to the quota. He gave all of his pledge to the parish, but he was scrupulously careful to see to it that every cent given on the missionary side of the pledges was sent to diocesan headquarters on the first of every month. It did not seem to him to be good business for the quota to be paid in full and the parish budget undersubscribed, but he was honest and he did not place me in an intolerable position. I ask the vestries of this Diocese to make sure that their practice does not take the heart out of their rector, to say nothing of destroying his self-respect. A mother and father of four fine boys wrote me recently, "We are so thankful that our boys are good churchmen. They are washing the outside of our house to make money for Church and Red Cross. Edward often goes without a meal to have extra money to give and Tom goes without the movies for the same purpose." What chance would those boys have of continuing to be good churchmen if a vestry did not, at least, give a congregation a chance to show a like spirit? Rather than destroy the spirit of those boys and send them forth into the world cynical and selfish, it would be better for such a vestry to have a great stone fixed to their necks and to come to their end in the deep sea. I long for every parish in this Diocese to show the fine spirit which many are now showing.

As rapidly as possible I hope that we shall be able to do away with the many extra financial appeals which we have had in the Diocese this year. I feel that our diocesan budget should provide for our immediate necessities and that every parish should make an earnest effort to pay in full or over-pay their quota. I am convinced that in the long run we will have a stronger Diocese if we refuse to make extra appeals except for great emergencies. On June 11, 1938, the Executive Council voted that all special appeals for funds or offerings in the Diocese must have the approval of the Council. It was further recommended that the Finance Department should prepare a resolution to be presented to the next Diocesan Convention. I have not been able to find any record that it was so presented and I hope that it will be to this Convenion. If such a resolution meets with your approval, organizations affiliated with the Diocese, or more or less commended by it, will receive approval for an appeal for funds only after careful scrutiny and endorsement by the Executive Council.

Finally may I urge every parish to have a "Planning for the Future" Committee, call it by any name that you desire. On this committee should be placed the strongest men and women in the parish. To such a committee should be sent any ideas or suggestions which the parishioners may have for the good of the parish, and all such proposals should be carefully weighed. The program which such a committee develops should represent, not only the rector's best thinking, but the careful thinking of the entire congregation. The creative effort involved in developing such a program is itself an essential part of a long time, healthy plan.

Rise up, O men of God!
The Church for you doth wait.
Her strength unequal to her task,
Rise up, and make her great!

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

SAMUEL GAVITT BABCOCK, First Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts, retired January, 1938, and died June 21, 1942. He was born at Newport, R. I., October 8, 1851; educated in the public schools of Newport and Salem, Mass.; Harvard; the Episcopal Theological School. From the latter institution he graduated with his degree in divinity in 1891. He was consecrated to the Episcopate June 17, 1913. His first post in the ministry was as assistant at Christ Church, Westerly, R. I., then curate at the Church of the Messiah, Boston; curate Grace Church, Providence, R. I., and rector of Christ Church, Hyde Park, Mass., successively. He was Archdeacon of New Bedford from 1899 to 1903, and Archdeacon of Massachusetts, 1903 to 1913.

WILLIAM THEODOTUS CAPERS, Bishop of West Texas, died at his home in San Antonio, Texas, after a short illness, on March 30, 1943, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. He was born in Greenville, S. C., August 9, 1867. He was consecrated to the Episcopate May, 1914. He received his D.D. degree at University of the South, his M.A. degree at University of Kentucky, graduated from the Virginia Theological Seminary in 1894. His first post in the ministry was as Assistant to the Rev. John Kershaw, Sumter, S. C., then rector of Grace Church, Anderson, S. C., then rector of the Holy Trinity Church, Vicksburg, Miss., then Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington, Ky., then rector of Church of Holy Apostles, Philadelphia, Pa. Served as Bishop Coadjutor of West Texas from 1914 to 1916. Bishop of West Texas, 1916 to his death.

WILLIAM MERCER GREEN, Bishop of Mississippi, died at his home in Meridian, Miss., on November 12, 1942. He was born at Greenville, Miss., July 12, 1876; educated in the south, having graduated from the University of the South. He was consecrated to the Episcopate May 20, 1919. His first post in the ministry was as assistant at St. Columb's Chapel, Jackson, Miss., then rector at Grace Church, Canton, then as assistant at St. John's, Knoxville, Miss., then rector of St. Paul's, Meridian, Miss., then rector of St. Andrew's Church, Jackson, Miss. He was a trustee of the University of the South, of All Saints College and of the DuBose Memorial Training School, also a member of the Board of Trustees of the State Institution of Higher Learning.

PETER TRIMBLE ROWE, First Bishop of the Missionary District of Alaska and oldest member of the American Episcopate, died at his home in Victoria, B. C., June 1, 1942. He was born at Meadowville, Ontario, Canada, November 20, 1856. Graduated from Trinity College, Toronto, in 1878, and worked as a missionary among the Indians while he studied for the priesthood. He was consecrated to the Episcopate November 30, 1895.

Of the Priests of This Diocese:

ABEL JOHN ARKIN, Rector of St. George's Church, Port Richmond, Philadelphia, died October 4, 1942, in the office of the Church, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was born in Kovno, which was at that time in Russia, in 1863. He came to this country about 1880 with a group which sought to build a socialist colony in North Dakota. In 1897 he came to Philadelphia and enrolled in the Philadelphia Divinity School. He was ordained by Bishop Whitaker and became Rector of St. George's Church in 1901. He exerted a great and continual influence for good in his community for many years, and his life is an illustration of the power which comes with full consecration to the service of Jesus Christ. He was a Mason and a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

GEORGE AARON BARTON, a Priest of the Diocese, died at his home in Weston, Massachusetts, on June 28, 1942. He was born on November 12, 1859, at East Farnham, Quebec, Canada, becoming a naturalized citizen of this country in 1900. His collegiate education was pursued at Haverford College, where he received the degrees of B.A. and M.A., and his D.D. at Trinity College, his Ph.D. at Harvard University. He was Professor of Biblical Literature and Semitic Languages at Bryn Mawr from 1891 to 1922, holding a similar Preceptorship at Haverford College from 1891 to 1895; Professor of the New Testament in the Divinity School in Philadelphia from 1921 to 1937.

Benjamin Stewart Bert, a Priest of the Diocese, died at the Harrison Home, Philadelphia, on December 23, 1942. He was born at Newville, Pennsylvania, on April 28, 1873. He was ordained by Bishop Webb in December, 1906. He left Philadelphia for several years and returned in 1916 to become Curate of the Church of the Annunciation. In 1919 he left Philadelphia, returning only in the summers to St. Clement's. His last years were spent at the Nashotah House, Nashotah, Wisconsin.

Henry Bower Gorgas, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died in the Episcopal Hospital on April 5, 1943. He graduated from the General Theological Seminary, New York, in 1889, and was ordained the following year. He was Assistant Rector at St. Luke's in 1905; Assistant at St. James the Less Church and later Assistant at St. Alban's Church, Olney, and St. Timothy's, Roxborough.

Richard Kemp, a Priest of the Diocese, died on November 5, 1942. He was Rector of St. Mark's, Honey Brook, Chester County, Pa., from 1927 to 1928. In 1928 he accepted a call to Calvary Church, Rockdale, Delaware County.

Lewis Gouverneur Morris, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died on November 6, 1942. He was born in Stillwater, Minn., August 14, 1873. He was ordained in 1898. He was Rector Emeritus of Calvary Church, Germantown, Philadelphia.

Granville Taylor, Vicar of the Chapel of the Mediator and Rector of the Holy Apostles, died in Maine, where he was vacationing, on August 17, 1942, in the fifty-fifth year of his age. He was born at Manchester, England, on May 17, 1887. He came to Philadelphia at an early age and was educated in Philadelphia. He attended Swarthmore College and the University of Pennsylvania, receiving his master's degree at the latter institution. In 1916 he graduated from the Philadelphia Divinity School. In 1917 he was ordained a Priest. For a time he was Curate at the Holy Comforter Memorial Church. Later he was Assistant to the Rector of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany. From 1919 to 1922 he was rector of St. Paul's Memorial Church. He resigned this post in 1922 and accepted a call to the Chapel of the Mediator and under his leadership it became the largest congregation in the Diocese. He was Dean of the Convocation of West Philadelphia from 1934 to 1942. He was a member of the Standing Committee, the Executive Council and the Finance Committee of the Diocese. A member of the Board of Managers of the Episcopal Hospital and the Evangelical Educational Society. The life of Christ was the key to his life and work. Christ lived His life again in this faithful servant and beloved pastor.

Horace Andrews Walton, Rector of the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli, died at his home on November 14, 1942, having been ill but a few days. He was born in Philadelphia, attending Episcopal Academy and the University of Pennsylvania, where he graduated in 1890. He was ordained Deacon in 1893 and a Priest in 1894 by Bishop Whitaker. He served as Assistant in St. James' Church from 1893 to 1900; he then accepted a call as Assistant to St. Peter's Church; he was there from 1900 to 1902. In 1902 he became Rector of the Church of the Good Samaritan, for which he served 40 years; this was his only rectorship. Bishop Taitt has said of him: "I join with his congregation in feeling that while his death makes Heaven seem nearer, it makes earth more lonely."

Of Lay Deputies to the Last Convention:

John Welsh Drayton died September 23, 1942. He was Rector's Warden of the Church of the Messiah, Philadelphia, for many years.

Reese P. Davis died June 9, 1942. He was a Vestryman of Calvary Church, Conshohocken, for fifty-four years, and Accounting Warden for forty-three years.

John T. Eplett died February 19, 1943. He was Rector's Warden of the Church of the Resurrection, Philadelphia, for many years, and a Deputy to the Diocesan Convention.

Charles A. Gill died February 15, 1943. He was a Vestryman of the Church of the Resurrection, and a Deputy to the Diocesan Convention.

William Paul Morris died December 15, 1942. He was a Vestryman of Old Saint David's Church, Radnor, for many years.

Gerald Powell died August 3, 1942. He was a Vestryman of St. Mary's Church, Wayne, for many years.

Of Lay Deputies to Former Conventions:

APPENDIX D

Report of the Standing Committee

The Standing Committee met for organization on May 29, 1942, and received the Report of the Secretary of the Convention that the Convention had elected as members of the Standing Committee:

The Rev. Nathanael B. Groton	Mr. William P. Barba
The Rev. Franklin Joiner	Mr. William H. DuBarry
The Rev. Chauncey E. Snowden	Mr. Spencer Ervin
The Rev. Granville Taylor	Mr. Samuel F. Houston
The Rev. Stanley R. West	Mr. W. W. Montgomery, Jr.

The Rev. Franklin Joiner was elected President of the Standing Committee, and Mr. William H. DuBarry was elected Secretary of the Standing Committee.

The death of the Reverend Dr. Granville Taylor on August 17, 1942, was noted by the following resolution:

The Standing Committee wishes to place on record its deep feeling of sorrow in the death of the Rev. Dr. Granville Taylor, one of its members, to send its sympathy to Mrs. Taylor in the death of her husband, and to the Church of the Holy Apostles and especially to the Chapel of the Mediator, its sympathy in the death of their devoted Pastor and Friend.

Dr. Taylor's wide acquaintance with this Diocese in which he had spent his entire Ministry, his consecrated Pastoral instinct and wide Parochial experience, made his counsel and advice most valuable in the deliberations and decisions of the Standing Committee. We shall miss his warm friendship and genial brotherliness. We commend his soul to the Master in whose Service his life was dedicated.

The Reverend Dr. James Martin Niblo was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Taylor.

The President appointed the following committees:

Budget Committee: Mr. William P. Barba, Mr. Spencer Ervin.

Committee on Charters: Mr. Spencer Ervin, Mr. W. W. Montgomery, Jr.

Committee on those qualified for election to the episcopate: Mr. Samuel F. Houston, the Rev. Dr. Nathanael B. Groton.

Committee concerning the qualifications of Postulants and Candidates for Holy Orders, the Diaconate, and the Priesthood: The Rev. Dr. Nathanael B. Groton, the Rev. Stanley R. West, and Mr. William H. DuBarry.

Since the Convention had elected the Reverend Oliver J. Hart as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, it became necessary for the Standing Committee to arrange to receive the consents of a majority of the Standing Committees of the Dioceses of the Church, and to arrange for the various papers and credentials concerning Dr. Hart's election. The Presiding Bishop and the Bishop of the Diocese asked the Standing Committee to serve as a Committee on Arrangements for the Consecration of the Reverend Dr. Hart as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, which occurred at the George W. South Memorial Church of the Advocate on October 16, 1942.

The Standing Committee consented to the consecration of:

The Reverend John Moore Walker, as Bishop of the Diocese of Atlanta;

The Reverend Herman R. Page, as Bishop of the Diocese of Northern Michigan; and

The Reverend Duncan Montgomery Gray, as Bishop of the Diocese of Mississippi.

The Standing Committee accepted the resignation of the Reverend Richard J. Morris as Secretary of the Convention, effective August 1, 1942, with the following resolution:

The Standing Committee wishes to place on record and convey to the Rev. Richard J. Morris its grateful appreciation of his many years of faithful service as Secretary of the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee deeply regrets the illness that now holds him, and wishes for him a complete recovery and many years of happiness in his well-earned retirement.

The Reverend Charles H. Long was appointed Secretary of the Convention, vice the Reverend Mr. Morris.

The Standing Committee accepted the resignation of Mr. Arthur V. Morton as Treasurer of the Diocese on January 5, 1943. The letter of acceptance to Mr. Morton stated:

The Standing Committee accepted your resignation with great regret, but realized that you should be relieved of the responsibilities and duties which you have fulfilled for fourteen years. The Standing Committee further asked me to express to you their deep appreciation of your services and to tell you of the esteem in which you are held by everyone in the Diocese. Your lot has not been an easy one, as the depression years and the pre-war years fell within your term of office.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) WILLIAM H. DUBARRY, Secretary.

On February 2, 1943, Mr. Frederick R. Drayton, the Assistant Treasurer, was elected Treasurer of the Diocese, vice Mr. Morton.

On April 6, 1943, Mr. Joshua A. Pearson was elected Assistant Treasurer of the Diocese, vice Mr. Drayton.

The Standing Committee gave its approval to the appointment of the Rev. Frederick Seymour to be a member of the Board of Examining Chaplains, vice the Rev. Charles Martin, resigned.

The Standing Committee nominated for election to the Board of Council of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission the following:

The Right Rev. Francis M. Taitt	Mr. Curtis L. Clay
The Rev. James M. Collins	Mr. Albert C. Brand
The Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox	Mr. John H. Gossling
The Rev. John E. Hill	Mr. George Farnam Brown
The Rev. Edmund H. Carhart, Jr.	Mr. Wilfrid H. Robertson
The Rev. Percy R. Stockman	Mr. Jas. Somers Smith, Jr.
The Rev. Stanley R. West	Mr. J. Weir Sargent
The Rev. Charles E. Eder	Mr. I. Smith Raspin
The Rev. E. Felix Kloman	Mr. Charles C. Sise
The Rev. Robert D. Morris	(Physician to be appointed later)

During the year the following Postulants were approved as Candidates for Holy Orders:

Mr. Eugene Evans Botelho	Mr. Gordon Messick Jones, Jr.
Mr. Emile Ernest Bruder	Mr. Burket Kniveton, Jr.
Mr. Howard Eugene Davis	Mr. Charles Bright Mauch
Mr. Howard Sheldon Davis	Mr. Kenneth Cadman Morris
Mr. Raymond A. Gill	Mr. Elmer James Smith, Jr.
Mr. Charles Homer Hanby, Jr.	Mr. Ronald Ansley Wiley
Mr. John Norman Hill

The following Candidates were recommended to be Deacons:

Mr. Howard Eugene Davis
Mr. Howard Sheldon Davis
Mr. William Forbes
Mr. Melvin Moyer Heckler
Mr. Vernon Matthews
Mr. Norman Gould Oliver
Mr. Wm. Barnstead Schmidgall
Mr. William Arnall Wagner, Jr.

The following Deacons were recommended to be Priests:

The Rev. David T. P. Bradley
The Rev. Theodore J. Schneider
The Rev. John William Talbott
The Rev. Wendell B. Tamburro

The Standing Committee approved the proposed charter for St. Augustine's Mission.

The Standing Committee approved proposed new charters for the following:

St. Andrew's Church, Yardley
Trinity Church, Oxford
St. Matthias' (Philadelphia)

In connection with its approval of amendments to the charter of Trinity Church, Oxford, the Committee voted to suggest to Convention's Committee on Canons the desirability of a Resolution by Convention, requesting the Diocesan to call to the attention of the Common Pleas Courts within the Diocese the existence of Canons governing applications for the grant or amendment of charters and their binding effect under the Act of 1935, P. L. 353.

In connection with information received from the Chairman of Convention's Committee on Charters, regarding action by the Court of Common Pleas No. 1, Philadelphia County, upon amendments to the charter of Incarnation, Philadelphia, the Standing Committee voted to suggest to Convention's Committee on Charters the desirability of action to protect the interests of the Diocese.

A petition was received by the Standing Committee from the Dean of the Convocation of Germantown and a majority of the Executive Committee, asking permission to establish a new place of public worship, as a Diocesan missionary enterprise, in Falls Township, Bucks County, near the Delaware River, four miles below Morrisville, Pennsylvania, to be known as Penn's Manor Chapel. No objections to the establishment of this new place of worship having been expressed by the Rectors and Secretaries of the Vestries of the three Parishes whose places of worship are nearest the site of the proposed Mission's place of worship, the Standing Committee advised the Bishop that this new place of worship should be established.

Former Dean Bartlett was asked to make a study of certain proposed changes in the Canons as to Ordination, under the direction of the Committee on Ordination of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee approved the transfer to The Church Foundation, as Trustee for the Diocese, by the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of St. Asaph's, Bala, of a certain property in West Manayunk, Philadelphia County, known as St. Andrew's Chapel.

WILLIAM H. DUBARRY,
Secretary.

The meeting was adjourned to meet at luncheon during the Diocesan Convention on May 4, 1943.

SPENCER ERVIN,
Acting Secretary.

APPENDIX E

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, 1942

The Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1942, audited by Charles S. Rockey and Company, Certified Public Accountants, is submitted herewith.

The Diocese paid its expectations to the National Council, amounting to $118,221.24, and all current operating bills for 1942. This was made possible by the continued efforts of the clergy and laity as demonstrated by the following record of payment on expectations by Parishes and Missions:

1 paid nothing
24 paid in part
28 paid in full
151 exceeded their expectation; in this classification 8 equalled the quota set by the Diocese; and 52 paid more than their quota.

Following the precedent established last year, any cash balance in the Missionary Fund was transferred to the Diocesan Surplus or Suspense Accounts. The small balance of $351.74 remaining in the Mortgage Redemption Account was transferred to the Surplus Account with the understanding that the money would be used for the purpose for which it was originally given.

The Diocese suffered a severe loss in the decision of Mr. Arthur V. Morton that he should resign his office as Treasurer after many years of faithful attention to his duties. He carried a heavy load through trying times and he deserves our thanks for the help that he has given us in past days.

Our gratitude goes to the Parishes and Missions, the Woman's Auxiliary and other Diocesan organizations for their assistance. As usual the financial staff of the Treasurer's Office gave efficient and faithful service, not sparing themselves when extra work was required.

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON,
Treasurer.
JOSHUA ASH PEARSON,
Assistant Treasurer.

April 30, 1943.

APPENDIX F

Report of Departments of Executive Council

A Secretary's remarks should be brief in order not to detract from the main substance in the departmental reports. A new era has begun in the administrative affairs of the Diocese and of the Council by a closer affiliation of the Executive and Episcopal offices in the Church House under one Secretary. The Executive Council had its first paid Secretary in Mr. Reynolds Brown, followed by the Reverend Mr. Van Meter, then Rector, Calvary Church. Germantown. After the sudden death of Mr. Van Meter, the Council did not fill the office but elected Mr. Spencer Ervin as Executive Vice-President, without salary, and appointed Archdeacon Bullitt, Secretary of the Council. In 1937 the Reverend Dr. Houghton, who had been lent by the Field Department of the National Council to the Diocese of Pennsylvania, was elected Executive Secretary, and in February, 1941, he was called to active duty as a Chaplain in the Reserve Corps of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. The Council extended a year's leave of absence and the Bishop appointed a Committee of Seven as an Executive group to perform the duties of the Executive Secretary. In March, 1941, occurred the death of Archdeacon Bullitt and the Reverend Charles H. Long was elected Secretary of the Council. In March, 1942, Mr. Ervin informed the Council that he was not a candidate for re-election as Vice-President. The duties of the Executive Committee were increasing and the members were not able to devote as much time as the work demanded. A study of the situation was made by a joint committee of the Executive Council and Standing Committee. The Reverend Richard J. Morris, many years Secretary to the Bishop and Secretary of Convention, resigned owing to ill health. The Committee after having conferred with Bishop Taitt invited the Reverend Charles H. Long to give full time to the new position as Secretary of the Diocese with the following duties:

Secretary to the Bishops (By appointment)
Secretary of Convention (By election)
Secretary of the Executive Council
Secretary of the Executive Committee of Council
Secretary of the Department of Finance
Secretary of the Department of Missions
Secretary of the Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry
Secretary of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions
Supervision of the Church House and Staff
To co-ordinate the work of the several departments of the Council

The Bishop approved and appointed Mr. Long as his Secretary. The Reverend Mr. Long resigned his rectorship of twenty-four years at Zion Church, and gave up outside interests to devote all his time to this position. The Secretary wishes to express his appreciation of the cooperation he has received and for the splendid foundations laid by former Secretaries. The combining of these offices will make a saving of six thousand dollars in the budget.

During the year the Department of Publicity curtailed its work to a minimum in order to reduce expenses. Mrs. Deakyne, the Business Manager of Church News, was the only full-time paid member of the office and the other duties were shared by the Executive Office and a part-time girl employed for clerical work. Reverend Dr. Stockman has given much time and thought to The Church News.

Through the efforts of the Field Department many missions have been encouraged to reduce their mortgages. This is the time for all churches to reduce debts.

Mr. Edward Clay was appointed by the Department of Finance to be Chairman of the Committee on Financial Safeguards and he stands ready to help and to advise Rectors and vestries desiring information on the operation of Canon XVI.

The Council approved the action of the Department of Finance in its agreement with Charles Rockey and Company, C. P. A., to counsel monthly the bookkeeping department.

The groups and organizations within the Diocese of Pennsylvania are requested to clear all dates for meetings through the office of the Secretary of the Diocese.

The Council by resolution meets bi-monthly instead of monthly from October to June.

CHARLES H. LONG,
Secretary to the Bishops.
Secretary of the Diocese.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Some idea of the scope of the activities of this Department may be gathered by quoting from a recent agenda the topics listed for consideration: Parole, Marriage legislation; Juvenile Crime; Salacious publications; Social Hygiene: Sterilization, in addition to those mentioned at further length in this report.

Child Labor bids fair to become an important matter for close attention during the war. There has been a sharp increase in the number of children leaving school for work as early as the law allows, which is 16 years in 13 states and 14 in most of the others; many, of all ages, have taken on jobs outside of school hours, frequently carrying a full work week in addition to their studies, widespread violations of child labor laws are reported and efforts to break down legislative standards have continued.

When the Census was taken nearly three years ago, 213,104 boys and girls of 14 and 15 years were gainfully employed, full time or part time, in industry or agriculture, including those regularly employed on the home farm. Using considerable statistical liberty, and applying to this figure the percentage of increase in work permits issued between 1940 and 1942, it is estimated that more than 500,000 children of 14 and 15 years are working at the present time, of whom about 60,000 are out of school.

No one, inside or outside the government, has suggested that our war effort makes it necessary for children under 16 years to leave school. That so many are doing so reflects the ease with which they can find jobs, the inadequacy of state labor laws and the inability of understaffed labor departments to enforce existing regulations.

Nor can anyone justify the extent to which children under 16 are working outside of school hours. Although child labor standards generally accepted as desirable recognize employment after school hours or during vacation periods as necessary to a certain degree, they stipulate that such work should be strictly regulated, both as to type and amount. What is happening, however, is revealed by a study made last October by the Connecticut Department of Labor. More than 1,000 children under 16 years in the junior and senior high schools of four Connecticut cities were employed outside of school hours, exclusive of those in domestic service and street trades. Many were working long hours in addition to their school program. Many were employed at night sometimes till midnight every day of the week, and in places undesirable for children, such as bowling alleys, motion picture houses, and quick lunch restaurants. To what extent this is the case in Pennsylvania has yet to be definitely determined.

Then there is another phase the extent to which girls of school age frequent the streets, especially in the center of the city, and make casual and unregulated acquaintance with soldiers and sailors. This situation is giving organizations like our Crime Prevention Bureau great concern.

Race relations have occupied much of the Department's attention during the past year, including an illuminating address on the work of the State Commission of which Senator Franklin Spencer Edmonds (a former member of the Department) is Chairman. It was made by its Executive Director. He has also addressed the Woman's Auxiliary on the same topic. What the legislature will do with the report when presented cannot be forecast nor will the part we will be asked to play. Our duty will be to cooperate to the extent of our ability. In this connection we will be greatly helped by the fact that one of our own members, the Hon. Thomas B. Stockham, is again a member of the House of Representatives.

We have sought to set an example by utilizing the active cooperation of Negroes, without reference to color. It is only by accepting them as fellow members of the Body of Christ that we can show forth our belief that we are members one of another.

A sister Department of Social Service (that of Massachusetts) has put the situation very clearly: "The greatest reason for group discrimination is, however, our human sin, and Christianity, in interpreting this, has a deep insight into the real cause of our prejudice. Sin is pride and selfishness, and we express and extend our egos in many subtle ways. We do it, for example, by stating that because we live on one street and belong to a certain group we are superior to people who live on another street and belong to another social group. We do it through our nation in believing that God cares more for us than He does for the Chinese or the Egyptians. And we express our pride and self-centeredness through 'racial' discrimination. Sometimes we vaunt ourselves by laughing at others as we puff ourselves up with hatred. If this is not clear in ourselves, consider the spectacle of the Nazis for the past ten years. They laughed at the Negroes and hated the Jews, and revealed an arrogance and pride seldom seen so clearly. All of us tend to believe that we are superior either intellectually or morally to other groups and this is the reason we hold the views we do, when, as a matter of fact, our violent feelings are aroused only when our own interests are touched. So in college, where many Jewish students stand at the top of their classes, some students tend to call them 'Pushy Jews,' when, if they were really honest with themselves, they would see that many Jewish students are more earnest about the real purpose of college than they. But instead of admiring achievement they defend their own pride by laughing and hating. It is likewise true, to use another example, that we in the North have less feelings about Negroes than people do in the South. This is not due to any moral superiority on the part of Northerners (although we like to think in pride this is the case) but rather because in the North our own interests are not threatened by the small percentage of the Negro population. We will begin to rid ourselves of our views toward them only when we see in humility our own sin in pride, and face resolutely the fact that no one people is inherently superior to any other. It is God's will for all men that must be followed and our own proud wills that must be tamed."

Some years ago the original Department of Institutions was merged with the Department of Christian Social Relations. Constant attention has been given to the important and serious problem. The Diocese is rich in useful institutions, bearing the Church's name, over which, however, the Church has no real control or even supervision. It is to be noted that the Diocesan Convention at its meeting in May, 1942, passed a resolution to the following effect: "There are certain Church institutions which form an integral part of the life and responsibility of the whole Diocese, whose governing Boards are not at present selected or elected in varying ways. These institutions are not very closely identified with the Convention, either through the right of the Convention to nominate members of the Boards or to receive financial reports. It was therefore resolved that a committee of three Presbyters and three Laymen be appointed to study the present situation that now exists between Convention and Diocesan institutions, and to call into conference the Boards of the several institutions, and to report at the next Convention some plan under Canonical procedure a closer relationship and responsibility may be established the Diocesan Convention and Diocesan institutions."

This Committee has been at work and may have a report for 1943.

It is interesting and encouraging to note that the Woman's Auxiliary is taking an increasing part in all matters relating to social relations and is conducting a series of regular meetings to consider much the same subject as this Department.

The State Legislature will be in session this year and it promises to be a busy one for this Department along defensive lines. There is talk of repealing or modifying the Public Assistance Program, which is recognized as one of the most progressive programs in the country. As the Public Charities Association has pointed out that "in place of confusion, overlapping, mixed controls, political manipulation and costly and unaccounted-for expenditures in a number of areas, the various forms of public assistance have been integrated in one program and administered during subsequent years according to principles that any thoughtful citizen will recognize as sound: The program has been operated on a basis of consideration only of the needs of applicants; all persons in need have received assistance promptly, without regard to race, color, or creed. Applicants not in need were denied it; employees have been employed under a merit system, according to the qualifications called for by the work they are required to do. The work has been decentralized with a comparatively small administrative staff in the State office, with most of the staff appointed by the local boards and working directly under their supervision in the 67 counties. The program has been flexible, providing for reduction in staff in relation to reduction of case load, with continual emphasis on rehabilitation and employment of able bodied recipients; a comprehensive accounting and statistical system has been developed, so that any tax payer can immediately secure information as to the cost and coverage of the program; State financing has resulted in economical, just and equitable administration, with no person denied aid because he lived in a particular county which for economic and industrial reasons had a disproportionate number of needy persons. At the same time, state financing has meant that home owners have not been burdened with increased taxes on their property."

The Department of Public Assistance has been designated as the agent of the Federal Government to administer the Civilian War Assistance program in Pennsylvania. It is a satisfaction to the citizens of the State that every county is thus equipped to handle any emergency services that may arise in this field.

We should be prepared to resist any effort to let down the bars or weaken a piece of legislation that has proved its worthiness.

There is also talk of an effort to repeal the provision requiring a three days' delay in the issuance of a marriage license.

It may be that the strength of public sentiment in favor of the Public Assistance Law and the Three Day Law will lead to these efforts being sidetracked, but it is incumbent on the Department to be on guard to protect them. This is one of its duties and is prepared to meet them.

Deaconess Elizabeth G. Newbold has been elected Secretary of the Department in succession to Miss Hilma H. Newman, who resigned her position as Executive Director of the Church Mission of Help to accept work in New York, who in turn succeeded Miss Anna S. Dickson, who resigned to enter Government work in Washington.

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF,
Chairman.

THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

The work of the Field Department has been carried on by the Deans and clerical representatives of the Convocations for the past year.

The members of the Department thought it wise to omit the annual fall conference because of gas and tire rationing. However a meeting of the parish canvass Chairmen was held in October at Holy Trinity Parish House. This meeting was addressed by our own Bishops as well as by Bishop Keeler and Mr. Joseph Boyle, the genial Editor of Forth.

This meeting was followed the same evening by another in Holy Trinity Church, at which time the clergy and lay people of the Diocese were invited to hear the representatives of the Presiding Bishop—Bishop Gilman of China and Bishop Keeler of Minnesota. They presented "The State of the Church" in a convincing and enthusiastic manner.

The Committee on Diocesan Contributors made the annual appeal late in December for funds to enable the Diocese to meet all of its commitments for 1942. The amount asked was $40,000, but because of the fact that Parishes and Missions over-paid their "Expectation" by so large an amount only $20,000 was needed. This sum of money was contributed by that faithful group of people whom we call "Diocesan Contributors" and who when asked to go one mile went two.

CHARLES W. SHREINER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE
1942

The Department of Finance met regularly each month except during the summer in 1942, and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards has been reorganized with Mr. Edward B. Clay as Chairman, and a report will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

Payments were made during the year against principal on mortgages from the Mortgage Redemption Fund as follows:

Redeemer, Springfield	$1,000
Ascension, Rhawnhurst	1,000
St. George, Richmond	4,000
Zion, Philadelphia	500
St. Peter, Glenside	500

On St. George, Richmond, this whole amount was paid by the Mortgage Redemption Fund which had been supplemented by money received from the legacy of the Graff Estate.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese, and its Expectation to the National Church for 1942, have been paid in full. The item in the budget for mortgage reduction was suspended with the understanding that any money remaining after the Expectation was paid would be used for the reduction of mission mortgages on a pro-rata basis. For this purpose $7,325 was appropriated for reduction of principal on mortgages to missions who had raised a like amount.

JOSHUA ASH PEARSON,
Chairman.

SUB-COMMITTEE—FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

Under date of November 9, 1942, the Secretary of the Department of Finance of the Executive Council, the Rev. Charles H. Long, sent a letter calling attention to revised Diocesan Canon XVI "Of Business Methods in Church Affairs" and giving the substance of the resultant changes in the Canon.

Since that date the new Sub-Committee on Financial Safeguards has been endeavoring to cooperate with the various Churches and Missions, with the idea of helping them conform to the regulations of the Canon, and at the same time keep down the resultant expenses as much as possible.

To this end, the Chairman wrote to a representative group of Central City Banks and Trust Companies, calling their attention to the Canon, and asking for a statement of their charges in connection with Sec. I (a), relative to Agency and Custodian Accounts. Replies, giving the basis of their charges, and stating that they were interested, were received from the following institutions: Brown Brothers, Harriman & Co., Corn Exchange National Bank and Trust Co., Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Co., First National Bank, Girard Trust Co., Pennsylvania Company, etc., Provident Trust Co., and Real Estate Trust Co.

It will be understood, that other Banks and Trust Companies would undoubtedly be interested in furnishing the same service, but the Committee felt the above named Companies would serve as an example. Their charges are based usually on the amount of principal involved in the Agency Accounts, and in the Custodian Accounts on a cost analysis of the securities involved and the size of the account.

Several of the above named Companies have already contacted a number of the Churches, through their Accounting Wardens, and offered their services, and they all stand ready to quote their charges upon being informed of the size, and the make-up, of the particular account in question.

The Church Foundation, the designated Trustee for Churches and Charities in this Diocese, having set up its own "Consolidated Investment Fund," is in an improved position to accept small, as well as large permanent trusts, especially trusts which will be added to from time to time. Such small trusts will be much better secured through diversity of investment, and additional small sums can be readily invested in units of the "Consolidated Investment Fund." For further particulars, contact the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, Room 810, Provident Trust Building.

In addition to this, one of the above named Trust Companies informs your Committee that it is planning a "Protestant Episcopal Church Investment Fund" to aid in carrying out the provisions of the Canon, a plan of which will be sent to all Parishes and Missions by this Trust Company.

Under Sec. I (d) of the Canon, relating to the annual audit of the accounts by a Certified Public Accountant, the Department of Finance can furnish upon application the names of C. P. A. firms which are thoroughly familiar with the Church Accounting Work.

It is the endeavor of your Committee to help in every way the Churches in relation to Canon XVI.

The Rev. James M. Niblo, D.D.,
The Rev. Charles H. Long

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

At a meeting of the Department of Missions information was asked as to the several funds under the above designation. Full information as to them was given to this Department and to the Council in 1934 when the present arrangement between the Council and The Church Foundation for the management of the funds went into effect, but may be briefly repeated here.

The Board of Missions, General Fund

In July, 1900, Bishop Whitaker, Rowland Evans and William S. Lane united in a declaration of trust certifying that they held certain monies and securities for such uses and purposes as the Board of Missions of this Diocese should from time to time appoint. In June, 1903, they transferred the said securities and some real estate to the Trustees of the Diocese under terms which made the latter little more than custodians of the securities, their sole duty being to hold the title and make such changes in investments as the Board of Missions might direct. In 1934 the Executive Council, regarded as the legal successor to the Board of Missions, entered into an agreement with The Church Foundation, successors to the Trustees of the Diocese, whereby the Foundation was to have the management of the funds of this and other Board of Missions Funds, investments to be made by direction of the Investment Committee of the Council for this purpose, said committee to be elected annually and to consist of the members of the Investment Committee of the Foundation, plus the Assistant Treasurer of the Diocese.

On June 8, 1932, the late Mr. Bonsall wrote regarding the use of the General Fund: "The Diocese is free to use these for any Missionary purpose of building or maintenance, but it has always been the view of the Department of Missions that it was wise, as far as possible, to keep the fund intact, so that there would be some income that could be used for emergencies apart from what comes in annually from the Parishes and Missions." Several legacies have been received during the last twelve years. The most recent addition to the fund has been the proceeds of the sale of the property 48th and Haverford, the old Holy Comforter property, which added $13,750. This will be reduced during the next two years by about $2,000 as principal payments thereon will be used to pay off the indebtedness due the Provident Trust Company and The Church Foundation on account of the erection of the new St. Giles', Stonehurst. At the close of 1941 the Book Value stood at $38,958.56. A considerable part of this consists of Participation Bonds purchased by the former management and which do not produce revenue, but this situation is being gradually worked out and such money as may be salvaged otherwise invested. The total annual income is about $1,500, but of this about $650 is from the interest on the 48th and Haverford purchase-money mortgage and has been allotted to the payment of the above mentioned indebtedness for the next two years, leaving about $850 annually for appropriation by the Council.

The Board of Missions Anniversary Fund

In 1909, in connection with the celebration of the 125th Anniversary of this Diocese, certain sums of money were raised and placed at the disposal of the Board of Missions with the suggestion that some portion be set aside as a permanent fund, income of which to be used in purchasing new sites for missions, unless a subsequent convention should otherwise determine. $10,000 was turned over to the Trustees of the Diocese as custodians, investments being directed by the Board of Missions or its representative. Since this fund came into the management of The Church Foundation it became necessary to sell at a very considerable loss a piece of real estate representing a foreclosed mortgage, with the result that the book value of the Fund now stands at $7,518.74. Income is about $290 annually.

The Board of Missions' George C. Thomas Fund

In 1910 the Board of Missions received some $50,000 under the will of the late George C. Thomas "For the work of Church Extension in this Diocese," with power to spend all the principal for such purposes but not more than $10,000 in any one year. The Church Foundation, under the agreement with the Council, received some $22,374 for this fund, a considerable part of which was in participating mortgages, and about $14,000 in mortgages which had to be foreclosed, and which created a very embarrassing situation, as The Church Foundation, at one time, had to supply over $2,000 to salvage these investments, and it was only recently that the loan was paid off and some income realized. One of these properties with a book value of over $9,000 was recently sold, with the approval of the Assistant Treasurer of the Diocese, for $5,000. One of the participating mortgages has been liquidated at 63c on the dollar. Consequently, the book value is now $10,494.56, plus nearly $9,000 accumulated income, and cash from the sale of the piece of real estate, all but $2,000 of which has been appropriated by the Council to help buy the site at Brookthorpe Hills and the Rectory at Springfield. The remaining assets should produce about $500 annual income.

The Bishop Taitt Fund for Diocesan Missions

At the time, some years ago, when the financial affairs of the Mission of St. John the Divine were at a critical stage, Bishop Taitt advanced $5,000 to save the property, and the Council agreed to pay it back at the rate of $500 a year, by making such payments to The Church Foundation to be set up as a fund to be known as "The Bishop Taitt Fund for Diocesan Missions," income to be used for such Diocesan Missionary purposes as the Bishop and the Council may direct. To date, $3,000 has been paid in this way. In addition to this, some three years ago Bishop Taitt advanced $3,000 to stave off foreclosure of a mortgage on the old St. Thomas' Church, on Twelfth Street below Walnut, taking as security for his loan a subordinated interest in the first mortgage on the property, which mortgage interest he directed to be added to the Bishop Taitt Fund above, thus giving it a present book value of $6,000. Of course, this will only hold provided the property is sold for enough to cover the whole first mortgage thereon, including the subordinated interest, which is considered likely. In the meantime, interest is being paid on said mortgage interest. Income will be about $280.

The Church of the Evangelist Fund

In 1922 the Church of the Evangelist was sold. According to the terms of trust under which the Trustees of the Diocese held the property, they could have devoted the proceeds to any Diocesan purpose, either by spending them entirely or by setting up a fund. The Convention of that year requested the Trustees to set the proceeds up under the name of the said Church as a fund, the income of which to be used to reduce the principal of mortgages on Mission properties. The Trustees did so, and adopted a resolution that appropriations for such a purpose would be made at the suggestion of the Council. In many cases these appropriations have been made conditional upon equal sums being raised by the Mission helped, but this is not obligatory. The present book value is $6,600 and the income about $300.

The Extra Diocesan Missions Fund

In 1904 the Trustees of the Diocese received some $20,000 from the then Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, being money which had been contributed for the purpose of purchasing new sites for Missions, and the Trustees were directed to expend the money for such purposes at the direction of the Bishop or Bishops. In the years since then most of the money has been so expended, but no appropriations have been made from the principal for ten or fifteen years, chiefly because it was invested in a mortgage, now real estate, with a book value of $5,046. Average annual income $220. The deed of trust provides that the income shall be used for the payment of taxes and other charges on property bought for future Mission uses, but, manifestly this could not have been intended to go on indefinitely, and the idea probably was to pay the taxes until such time as the property was actually used by a Mission. A typical use for such income now would be taxes on the land being bought for St. Peter's, Brookthorpe Hills, which may not be built upon for some years. The income should be held for that purpose. It is provided that any surplus income shall be expended as the Bishop may direct, and of recent years the Bishop has directed expenditures from this fund for various purposes, with or without the request of the Council. But it would seem that taxes on any unused real estate recently bought for Mission purposes would be a first charge on the income. There is not any principal money available for site purchases because it is all in a piece of real estate, which is rented and bringing in an average net return of nearly 5%. Some fine day, doubtless, it will be sold, but at present it is rather comfortably "frozen."

Many of the Missions of the Diocese have put forth an extra effort in 1942 to reduce the mortgages upon their properties. The spirit of cooperation on the part of Vicars, with the Deans of Convocations and with the Department, has shown itself in larger self-support and in assuming a greater share of the Church's Missionary Quota.

The future of the Diocese depends upon the growth and development of missionary opportunities. With this thought in mind the Department asked each Convocation to make a study of present problems and future possibilities. The surveys made show the trend of population shifts and where the Church should locate its Missions in the "Diocese of Tomorrow." Surveys have value when recommendations are put in force. A committee may see the need of starting a new work but it takes a large sum of money to purchase ground before the cost of a building is considered. The income from established funds is inadequate for present day needs and the Department hopes that more persons in the Diocese will make mention in their wills the missionary work of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

In the material development of the Diocese under the Department of Missions a rectory has been purchased for Redeemer Mission, Springfield. Settlement was made for land at Brookthorpe Hills for St. Peter's Mission. St. Andrew's, West Manayunk, has become a Diocesan Mission; St. Asaph Parish, Bala, has deeded this Mission to the Diocese.

During the year the Rev. Dr. John Shryock was elected Dean of Convocation of North Philadelphia, and the Reverend John Q. Martin was elected Dean of Convocation of West Philadelphia (since resigned and in January, 1943, the Rev. Chauncey E. Snowden was elected to succeed Dean Martin).

CHARLES H. LONG,
Secretary, Department of Missions.

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Convocation has had so many blessings this past year that it makes it a joy to write this report. To a large extent it is a missionary Convocation, even though the "Mainline" is part of it. We have twenty-three Missions and twenty-two of them met their "Expectation." Ten of them met the Quota. For 1943, thirty-two Parishes and Missions have accepted their Quota. The total offerings for the missionary work of the Church for 1942 was $79,000, which is $16,000 above the Quota. That in itself makes true the opening sentence of this report.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation again made a gift of $2,000 this year to St. Faith's, Brookline. The Mission gave a like amount and is now within $1,000 of being clear of all indebtedness. During the ten years of its existence $40,000 has been raised in one way or another for St. Faith's. Some time during this year it will be completely clear of debt. It seems to me St. Faith's justifies its existence, for the people have responded in as generous a spirit as the Diocese has shown them. The Diocese has been more than generous to St. Faith's and I believe should act the same way to every Mission that is started. It would do something for the Missions that are badly needed.

Our Missions have responded to the pledge of the Diocese to match them dollar for dollar for the reduction of the mortgages. The Missions raised $4,500 for this purpose and the Diocese made a gift of $4,500 to match it. More than that, three of the Missions are no longer asking for an appropriation from the Diocese—St. Faith's, St. Giles and the Church of the Redeemer, Springfield. At least one more of our Missions expects to relinquish its appropriation at the end of this year.

Two Priests of the Convocation are serving as Chaplains in the armed forces. Rev. Hugh Fryer, whose charge has been taken by the Rev. Charles Elliott, and the Rev. William Powell, whose charge has been taken by the Rev. James McClintock. Two Priests have returned to the Convocation. the former Dean Wilcox to St. Paul's, Chester, having found it necessary to leave the Army because of impaired physical condition, and the Rev. Matthew Davis who has returned to the Church of the Ascension, West Chester. Rev. W. W. Williams resigned from St. Martin's, Marcus Hook, and the Bishop appointed the Rev. Melvin M. Heckler, a Deacon, in his place.

The Rector and Vestry of St. Asaph's, Bala, have asked the Diocese to accept their Chapel, St. Andrew's, West Manayunk, as a Mission. With much reluctance they have taken this action and the Diocese wishes to express its appreciation for the care and assistance they have given for forty years to St. Andrew's. The Parish will make an annual grant of $500 a year for five years for its maintenance.

We want to express to the Clergy and the Lay People of the Convocation the sincere appreciation of the Diocese for their loyal support of the missionary work of our Church.

CHARLES W. SHREINER,
Dean.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Convocation of Germantown has 35 Parishes, 1 Chapel and 14 Missions, 6 of the latter being in the City of Philadelphia, and 8 in Bucks County, making in all 50 centers for the worship of God and the work of the Episcopal Church; and they have more than 18,000 communicants, about one-quarter of all those in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

I feel that real progress has been shown by the Missions of the Convocation during 1942, and that the Vicars have done splendid work at their various posts. This progress is shown in greater devotion to the Church and its services and in increased givings to the Church and its work.

For the year 1942 the Quota of this Convocation was $66,439.50. The Parishes and Missions stated that they expected to be able to give $68,835.72; and they contributed $96,325.27. For this we congratulate and thank them.

For the year 1943 the Expectation from the various Parishes and Missions, based on the same Quota as for 1942, is $74,423.96; but we hope to be able to raise more than that amount.

Since our last report one of our Missions, that of the Messiah, Oxford Circle, has, under the faithful direction of the Rev. William O. Roome, Jr., became a Parish. We congratulate him and his people upon the splendid success they have achieved. They have worked hard to make this step possible. We wish them continued prosperity, and we pray that God's richest blessings may rest upon them.

The year 1942 saw the amalgamation completed between St. John's Mission, West Oak Lane, and the Parish of St. Matthias, formerly of 19th and Wallace Streets, and the Mission became "The Church of St. Matthias." Under the wise and energetic leadership of the Rev. Albert F. Fischer, Jr., the work has prospered remarkably well, and it is the hope of Pastor and people that in the very near future they may be able to leave the status of a Mission and become a Parish. They are working hard and we wish them all success.

St. Gabriel's, Feltonville, located at Front Street and the Roosevelt Boulevard, energetically led by the Rev. William T. Metz, has continued to do good aggressive work. They now have 323 communicants and a steadily increasing income through offerings and we trust that this Mission, too, will soon become a self-supporting Parish. The erection of a Rectory on their lot, when building restrictions are lifted, would help them toward this much desired goal.

Ascension, Rhawnhurst, has probably felt the recent depression as much as, if not more than, any Mission in the Diocese. When it was started in 1926 there was only one other Church in Rhawnhurst, but now there are five Protestant Churches and one strong Roman Catholic Church in addition to Ascension. The Roman Church has spent more than $200,000 in their buildings while our Mission building, which has to be used for every kind of activity on week days as well as on Sunday, is very dismal, being largely a basement. If this work is ever to progress, we must, as soon as possible, erect a second story as a Church to be used in worship only. The Vicar, the Rev. George L. Gibbs and his people, despite their continued good showing in increased communicants and offerings, are discouraged at having to carry on under such unfavorable conditions.

St. Andrew's, Somerton, a very small Mission, has under the leadership of the Rev. Louis E. Fifer, the Rector of St. Luke's, Bustleton, shown some improvement during the past year, but the work is none too encouraging.

St. Stephen's, Wissahickon, which took the status of a Mission in 1941, has under the capable supervision of a Deacon, the Rev. John W. Talbott, shown a slight upward trend during the year.

For several years the congregation of St. Mary's Polish Mission has been using the buildings of St. Stephen's, Wissahickon, and the work has been carried on under the administration of the Rev. Edward M. Baczewski. Beginning with January, 1943, they have decided to try and find a building of their own where they can work and worship. This would save the Diocese $420 a year. But they may find it difficult in getting such a place and it is probable they will have to go back to using the buildings of St. Stephen. The Dean feels that if the work at St. Stephen's and that at St. Mary's could be merged and thus become one work, there might be a future for both, but otherwise it is very questionable.

While the status of the work among our colored people at St. Barnabas, Germantown, is not that of a Mission, but of an aided Parish, it is good to know that as of January 1, 1943, they are relinquishing all aid from the Diocese and are becoming a self-supporting Parish. We heartily congratulate the Rev. E. Sydnor Thomas and his flock in this forward moving step.

Trinity, Buckingham, and Trinity, Solebury, in Bucks County, under the earnest guidance of the Rev. Charles F. Ehly, have shown definite progress. Mr. Ehly has also recently been given the oversight of St. Philip's, New Hope. For several years the work at St. Philip's has been in charge of a devoted layman, Mr. Robert C. Belleville, under the supervision of the Dean. However, in the Fall, Mr. Belleville entered the Army and the work was placed in the hands of the Vicar at Buckingham and Solebury with the assistance of a Lay Reader, Mr. Robert C. Lenhart. This arrangement seems to be working well and we can be sure it will bring good results.

Grace Church, Hulmeville, under the aggressive charge of the Rev. Albert W. Eastburn, has shown considerable progress. The attendance at Church services has grown materially, a number of repairs have been made in the buildings, and the people have started a fund for the enlarging and improving of the Parish House. This is a genuine need if any real growth is to be expected.

The work at Incarnation, Morrisville, has been steadily carried on by the Rev. Oliver E. Newton, and the Rev. Waldo D. Parker has continued to look after St. James, Langhorne, and St. Paul, Edgeley.

All Saints, Fallsington, continues to do a useful work under the devoted leadership of the Rev. Francis H. Smith.

The Convocation has had a real challenge by reason of the large numbers of people who have come to live in the Defense Housing project within our borders, and the clergy and people of the nearby Parishes and Missions have done all they could to gather these newcomers into their respective places of worship and make them feel at home, and they will continue to do so.

Toward the end of the year places were started for a new and very interesting piece of work among the employees of a large Farm Company in Bucks County. It is too early to report on it yet but we hope by next year to be able to state that the work is under way.

We again wish to express our sincere thanks to Dr. and Mrs. George Woodward for the use last spring of their beautiful estate for the annual Garden Party, so splendidly managed by our Woman's Aid. We are most grateful to the officers and members of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation, under the active and able leadership of Miss Lily Cheston, for the enthusiastic work they have accomplished during the past year.

We are glad to append their report and the report of the Treasurer of the Convocation of which we may well be proud, and we wish that all our Parishes and Missions would be sure to send representatives to the meetings of both the Convocation and of the Woman's Aid.

In conclusion I wish to express my deep thanks for the kindly cooperation I have received from so many of the clergy, laity and lay women of the Convocation, without whose help it would be impossible to do anything.

N. Herbert Caley,
Dean.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Woman's Aid of the Convocation of Germantown held its annual Garden Party in June, 1942, at the home of Mrs. George Woodward. In spite of gas rationing and bad weather the event was well attended. The spirit of fellowship and the financial response well rewarded the women for their hard work.

Four meetings were held during 1942, one of them being preceded by a quiet Hour.

The officers are:

Chairman: Miss Lily Cheston, until 1944
Vice-Chairman: Mrs. John Lear, until 1943
Treasurer: Mrs. Ralph Putnam, until 1945
Assistant Treasurer: Mrs. H. A. Holland, until 1944
Corresponding Secretary: Mrs. I. T. Gloninger, until 1945
Recording Secretary: Mrs. W. T. Irwin, until 1943
Educational Secretary: Mrs. John T. Custis

The Treasurer reports $1,301.75 received during the year, $917.83 being from the Garden Party and $383.92 from dues and collections. $99.50 was used for seven part scholarships to summer conferences, $52.49 for expenses, $50.00 for the War Commission, $40.00 for weekday religious education, $25.00 for the House of Rest. The balance of $1,035.86 is held in reserve for projects to be voted on at the next meeting.

LILY CHESTON,
Chairman.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Church's work has been faithfully carried on in all the Missions of the Convocation. Steady and persistent growth has been the result of the constant effort of the Vicars and their people. The influx of new people due to wartime industries have created problems of various sorts.

A large new industry at Hatboro brought new people, but at the same time caused a number of members of the Chapel of the Advent to remove further into the country or to return to the city. While the Mission is challenged with the incoming population, it had also to contend with the grave problem of losing former substantial and faithful members. To a more or less degree this has also obtained at Lansdale, though fewer people left the community. At both Churches, the Vicars met the challenge as an opportunity for greater activity and service for the Kingdom.

Epiphany, Royersford, has been given oversight by the new Rector of St. Peter's, Phoenixville. Sunday Services and Church School are carried on by a faithful Lay Reader, with Holy Communion and other Sacraments administered by the Rev. William N. Lanigan of St. Peter's. The Church building has been largely repaired and greatly improved on the interior.

Emmanuel Church, Quakertown, has been placed under the care of the Rev. Theodore J. Schneider, recently ordained in our Ministry. There has been a fine response to his ministrations, and hope is once more bred that this Church will develop and give spiritual care to the small neighboring communities and countryside.

The Vicar of St. Anne's, Willow Grove, the Rev. W. C. Lee, Litt.D., is Priest in Charge of St. Mary's, Ardmore, while the Rector of that Parish is away as a Chaplain in the Army. In his place at St. Anne's, the Rev. P. A. Phipps is acting as locum tenens.

Trinity, Gulph Mills, is an entirely rural work. St. Peter's, Glenside, is well cared for by the Rector of St. Peter's, Weldon, and reports all his ministrations in the report of that Parish.

JAMES M. NIBLO, Dean.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

There have been many changes among the Clergy of the Convocation during the past year. Among the Parishes, the Rev. Charles M. Coldren has become Rector of St. Nathanael's, the Rev. John R. Crockett of St. Paul's, Aramingo; the Rev. W. Roulston McKean of St. Matthew's; the Rev. Dr. Alfred W. Price of St. Stephen's, and the Rev. Paul C. Weed, Jr., of St. James the Less. The Rev. Herbert W. Jones has become Rector of Zion Church, in the Convocation of Germantown. The Rev. David C. Colony has become a Chaplain in the Army, and St. Luke's, Kensington, is temporarily in the care of the Rev. Edward McCance. The Rev. George I. Baldwin is temporarily in charge of the services at the Annunciation, and the Rev. D. W. Clark at St. John, Chrysostom.

At the January meeting of the Convocation, the Rev. Percy R. Stockman resigned as Dean. Dr. Stockman, who received an honorary degree from Temple University in June, had completed eight years of distinguished and unselfish service in this office. A wise and untiring leader, he was especially active and interested in advancing work among Negroes, and the success of St. Paul's, North Penn; St. Christopher's, and St. John's Settlement House are largely due to his efforts. The Convocation, realizing that the burden of managing the Seamen's Church Institute was proving too great to be combined with that of being Dean of Convocation, accepted his resignation with regret, and with appreciation of his devoted and effective efforts.

There have also been a number of changes in the Missions. The Rev. John P. McGarvey has become Vicar of St. Ambrose, and the Rev. Louis Johnson of St. Paul's, North Penn. The Rev. Morris W. Derr has become Vicar of St. George's, Richmond, and Priest in Charge of St. George's, Venango. For five weeks the latter was under the Rev. Mr. Heckler, who was later transferred to Marcus Hook, and the work is now under the direction of a lay reader, Mr. Chris Wyld. Mr. D. Frank Wilcox, a postulant for Holy Orders, is now in charge of St. Barnabas, with the Dean acting as Priest in Charge.

The Vestry and Congregation of the Church of the Annunciation, at 12th and Diamond Streets, offered the use of their plant to St. Christopher's Mission. This offer was gratefully accepted, as the work of the Mission was seriously handicapped as long as it remained in St. John's Settlement House. The two congregations are now using the same building, and the Advent Offering of the Diocese will be used to place the Parish House of the Annunciation in repair, so that it may be used by St. Christopher's. The gratitude of the Convocation, and of the entire Diocese, are due to the unselfish and wise decision of the people of the Annunciation. The work of St. Christopher's is temporarily in charge of the Rev. J. Walter Edwards, working under the supervision of the Rev. Tollie L. Caution as Priest in Charge. Thanks are due to Father Baldwin, and to Mr. John Curwen Rowe of the Vestry of the Annunciation, for the success of this effort.

The Convocation was saddened by the sudden death of the Rev. Abel John Arkin, Vicar of St. George's, Richmond. Many appreciations of Mr. Arkin's remarkable life and ministry have been published in the religious and secular press.

A survey of the Convocation was made at the request of the Department of Missions, revealing that there is a great missionary opportunity in the area, particularly for the development of work among Negroes. More emphasis should be placed upon this undertaking, which should be increased and expanded.

JOHN KNIGHT SHRYOCK,
Dean.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The three stated meetings held by the Aid during the year were very well attended; more and more are the members realizing how very interesting the work for our Missions can be, and while the Missions are our chief concern, yet other work done has, indeed, been Missionary work. Many women of North Philadelphia took part in the Episcopal day of the Week for the Blind and also at the Tea for the Episcopal Hospital, giving most generously of their time and money on both occasions.

Two mornings of Prayer and Meditations were held, one in February at the Church of the Covenant, conducted by our new Dean, and one in October at St. Matthew's, conducted by Mrs. Burton. We feel we were spiritually benefited by these meetings and given strength to continue our work.

Our sincere appreciation to Miss Thompson, Superintendent, and to the Board of Managers of the Home of the Merciful Saviour for Crippled Children, for the use of the house and lawn for our June Garden Party. It was a most happy time for all!

In looking back over the year I do so with a sense of deep gratitude for the joy and privilege it has been to be so closely associated with the people of the Churches and Missions of North Philadelphia, and with a sincere appreciation of the loyal support of those faithful church women, the Woman's Aid.

May I also thank the Rev. Dr. Shryock for the helpful and sympathic direction he has given us in this, his first year as our Dean.

MARY P. HARRISON,
President.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

It is once more my pleasure and privilege to acknowledge with deep appreciation splendid cooperation and genuine help from everybody within the bounds of this Convocation. If it had not been for such assistance, it would have been virtually impossible to carry on.

It was evidenced by Clergy and Laity alike, both giving abundant evidence of their interest in the work of the Diocese and General Church as the financial report of the past year will prove.

The Church in South Philadelphia is by no means in any moribund condition. Both the regular Clergy and Missionaries yield to none in the ardor and devotion of their work for God and the extension of His Kingdom.

At the Chapel of the Transfiguration, the Rev. Gustav C. Meckling continues the sterling work he has carried on in that district for some years past. Although the war and changing local conditions have affected his operations as they have in other cases, Mr. Meckling's solid work continues to bear fruit. The spirit of self-reliance has become more apparent in the Mission, and their outlook is now, according to what he reports, broader than it has been in the past. Such facts as these are decidedly encouraging.

Mr. Meckling's supervision of work done for the Diocese among the Hard of Hearing in Philadelphia at the Parish House of Holy Trinity Church, through the courtesy of the Rector, Dr. Salmon, and his vestry, has aroused additional interest and enthusiasm amongst those afflicted people. As a distinct unit, this body has this year given real assistance to the missionary effort of the Church. It is a pleasure to meet them and to witness the substantial work they carry on to make their group self-supporting. That support is always practical.

Steady and useful work has been carried on during the past year at St. Elizabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets, by the Rev. Francis Roseboro with the assistance of Miss Eleanor Deane. All the regular services of the Church have been maintained. This includes ministration to the Italians living in the district, many of whom have been helped spiritually and materially by their connection with the Church. The value of the Every Member Canvass was demonstrated at the end of the year when a special effort was made by the Priest in Charge to secure increased financial support for his Church. As a result of a meeting of the congregation, there was an increase of about $150 in the yearly pledges, while the Christmas Offering for 1942 jumped from $110 in 1941 to $180 in the year 1942. Diocesan assessments were met and the Church's "expectation" for Missions was slightly over-subscribed.

Writing about his work amongst the foreign born in the southern section of the city, Dr. Emhardt believes that the Diocese is offered an opportunity to promote fellowship amongst these people to a larger degree than in any other part of the country. In Philadelphia are to be found organized congregations of Russians, Greeks, Roumanians, Albanians, Syrians and Armenians representing the Eastern Churches. In addition, he says that an unorganized congregation of Serbians has used the Pro-Cathedral, and is planning for a more extensive use than in the past. Two of the above Churches enjoy the hospitality of other of our Churches in the city. These are the Albanians and the Roumanians. After wandering about homelessly from the point of view of the Church, the Armenians enjoyed the hospitality of the congregation at the Pro-Cathedral for some years, and last year, finding themselves strong enough to establish a separate congregation, they moved to another part of the city. On December 27, 1942, the new Armenian Church was consecrated in Philadelphia with a congregation of about one thousand in attendance. Some of these people still cooperate in the activities of the Pro-Cathedral, and their most prominent layman still contributes to both Churches. Although, as Dr. Emhardt points out, this type of work cannot be recorded amongst the statistics of the Episcopal Church, yet he believes that work of such a nature may be regarded as a real contribution to Christian growth and development.

The Italian Priest, the Rev. Thomas E. Della Cioppa, reports favorably on his work among the people of his race at the Pro-Cathedral, where he says he conducts the Services for his group in both the English and American tongues.

At Holy Spirit Mission, 11th and Moyamensing Avenue, where the Rev. John R. Logan, Jr., carries on his work by permission of the Rev. John E. Hill and his Vestry, regular work has been maintained throughout the year, principally amongst the Negro children of whom there are 125 in the Sunday School. Mr. Logan also officiates as Celebrant of the Holy Communion each first Sunday of the month.

It would be unfitting to complete this report without due recognition of the splendid work done by the Woman's Aid of the Convocation which extends out in many directions. When asked to work, these good people gave their services willingly, always supplying evidence of an enthusiasm for and interest in all that affects the welfare of the Church as a whole inside the confines of the Convocation. The war has inevitably brought many changes; but it has not in any way affected adversely the spirit and interest of our Churchwomen in this part of the City of Philadelphia.

FRANK BONYNGE,
Dean.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The January meeting of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of South Philadelphia was held at the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany.

At the morning session, the topic under consideration was "Democracy and the New World of Today," the leader being Mrs. William Jefferys, Vice-President of the Christian Education Department of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese.

The customary business meeting took place in the afternoon.

Mrs. Frederick S. Fox supplied a fine report of the Christmas work of the Elizabeth Price Martin League, and its activity at the Philadelphia General Hospital.

Dean Bonynge followed with a talk on the work which we might engage in, in this part of the city.

Many thanks to the ladies of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany for their hospitality and gracious welcome.

The May meeting took place at the Church of the Holy Apostles, and was chiefly concerned with arrangements for the Garden Party held subsequently at St. Peter's Church, through the kindness of the Rev. Frederick W. Blatz, Rector.

The Garden Party netted $459.78—a sum which was devoted to work at the Pro-Cathedral.

Educational Day for the Blind, March 16, was well supported by the delegates, who, in addition to acting as hostess and waitresses, gave $88.75, also 43 cakes, 53 cans of fruit, 14 lbs. of butter, 8 dozen eggs, chicken and potato salad, etc.

Mrs. Frederick W. Blatz, who works indefatigably for the Needlework Guild of America, reported donations of $35.50 and 842 garments from 15 Churches.

We met for the October meeting at the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion, memorable for the formal introduction to the Woman's Aid of Bishop Hart, our newly consecrated Coadjutor Bishop, who attended the meeting accompanied by Mrs. Hart.

Money was voted for Christmas Treats for the following Churches: Transfiguration, Holy Spirit, St. Elizabeth, Crucifixion, and St. Mary Pro-Cathedral.

We feel that the Convocation has suffered a real and great loss by the death of Miss Anna Watmough, of St. Mark's Church, whose enthusiastic work for the Cathedral of the Diocese will not soon be forgotten.

"May she rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon her."

I would like to close this report by placing on record my keen appreciation of the splendid spirit of cooperation of the Delegates, and their willingness to help in all the different phases of our work.

To them all the credit of this report is due. Thank you, Delegates.

MRS. FRANK BONYNGE,
President.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The Rev. John Q. Martin was elected Dean in May, 1942, succeeding the Rev. Dr. Granville Taylor, and was giving his wholehearted support to the work of the Convocation when he was called to service. He is now a Chaplain in the Navy. It became necessary in November for Mr. Martin to resign as Dean and the election for a new Dean was not held until 1943.

Dr. Taylor, who was Dean during the early part of 1942, died in August, 1942. The Missionary leadership which he gave to the Convocation, as well as to his Parish, will be an inspiration to all who follow after in the office of Dean. Dr. Taylor brought to the whole Diocese his zeal for Missions, and of his many works of love and service this desire to spread Christ's kingdom will live and bear much fruit.

Charles H. Long.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

During the year 1942, the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of West Philadelphia held three stated meetings, which were very well attended. In addition there was a Mission Study Class under the able direction of Mrs. William Jefferys, and a quiet day conducted by the late Dean Taylor and by Mrs. E. Warner Bonsall. A very successful Fashion Show and Card Party, planned by Mrs. Arthur Drake, coin cards and dues were our chief sources of income.

Alterations at St. Monica's Mission are our chief project at present and we are conserving our funds for that worthy work. We contributed to the Vacation Church Schools, Educational Work for the Blind, League of Intercessors. The Woman's Aid is taking an increasing interest in all Diocesan activities.

Mr. James Campbell, as Chairman of Social Service, does a splendid work at Christmas time, distributing baskets of food, toys and clothes to needy families of our Missions. Generous contributions from the various Churches in West Philadelphia, from the Diocesan Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary, from several Clubs and plate collections from the three meetings make this work possible.

The Woman's Aid sustained a tragic loss in the death of Dean Taylor. His radiant personality was an inspiration to all who knew him. His successor, Rev. John Quincy Martin, was carrying on ably when he was called into his country's service as a Chaplain in the Navy. In January, 1943, the Rev. Chauncey E. Snowden became our new Dean. To him the Woman's Aid pledges its loyal support and hearty cooperation in the work of the Convocation of West Philadelphia, the spreading of God's Kingdom.

At the end of my first year as Chairman, I want to express my deep appreciation for the unfailing, loyal support of the faithful group of women of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of West Philadelphia.

HELEN ORAM HECKEL, Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

The Department has had a very few matters referred to it during the year, namely:

1. Value of lots for St. Paul's Chapel, Edgely.
2. Extension of mortgage 3258-60 Memphis Street.
3. Tax reductions for three properties. Two were obtained, one for St. Monica's and one for 2961 Richmond Street. Complete exemption for St. George's, Richmond, which has been delayed, is now nearing completion.
4. Numerous conferences relative to the property at 57th and Pearl Streets; a price has now been accepted and a deposit received by the Church Foundation.
5. Replacement of mortgage for St. John's Free Church.

The Department has been reduced in numbers at the request of the Chairman in the hope that matters may be acted upon more quickly. Suggestions relative to the Department Budget and additional powers are now pending, and it is hoped that approval may be given in order that the program for the balance of the year may be put into effect.

RONALD J. MCCARTHY,
Chairman.

REPORT FOR DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

As temporary Chairman of the Department of Publicity I took office early in the summer of 1942. At that time there was a considerable debt accumulated by the Department in connection with the publication of The Church News. The Executive Council, realizing that there were no available assets, assumed certain obligations on behalf of the Diocese, thus clearing the debts to John C. Winston Co.

After two meetings of the Department it was agreed to present a plan for the operation of the Department and the publication of The Church News during the three months beginning October, 1942, and this was submitted to Bishop Hart at the request of Bishop Taitt, for his approval.

The plan called for limiting the number of pages to 16 and cover (except for some special issues); enlarging the type face, and presenting the available material in slightly different form from month to month. The reorganization of the office and the combining of the Business Manager and Advertising Solicitor was also arranged.

After the first of January, 1943, it was decided to continue this arrangement for the six issues ending with June, 1943. Meanwhile, the Diocese is handicapped by reason of having no Director of Publicity. It is hoped that the experience during the first six months of the ensuing year will provide a basis for a more permanent program. After such evolves the Department will be in a position to consider further recommendations, and meanwhile the patience and good-will of the Diocese is bespoken for the present effort.

PERCY R. STOCKMAN,
Chairman.

COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

This Commission held two conferences on the Ministry in 1942, one for college men on Sunday, May 17, at St. Peter's Church, 3rd and Pine Streets, attended by 11 students, the other for high school boys, Saturday, May 23, at the Philadelphia Divinity School, with 27 present.

We wish here to express our appreciation to the parochial clergy of the Diocese for their cooperation in sending us the names of young men in their cures who are interested in attending these conferences. Without their assistance we could not have held such meetings.

Last year the Commission made grants from the fund allocated to it by the Executive Council to eight students, one of whom was attending the Philadelphia Divinity School, one the Episcopal Theological School, one DuBose Training School, one the General Seminary, and four Nashotah House.

Having learned that there was no Commission such as this in any of the Dioceses in our Province, we requested the Reverend Franklin Joiner, a representative from our Diocese to the Synod, if he would present this subject to the Synod at its meeting last autumn. He did so and a resolution was unanimously adopted that a Provincial Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry be appointed and that the several Dioceses in the Province be asked to appoint like Commissions.

With the call of young men eighteen years of age and over into the armed forces, there is more than likely to be a dearth of candidates for Holy Orders during these next two or three years, a very serious problem which will confront the Church. A possible solution, in part, of this problem may be found by encouraging men beyond the draft age, who possess the necessary qualifications, to seek training for the Ministry. We commend this suggestion to the parochial clergy of the Diocese for their serious consideration.

WM. NEWMAN PARKER,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The past year saw many changes taking place in the personnel and organization of the Department of Religious Education. The Rev. Charles Martin, who was Chairman for five years and who did much to expand and publicize the work of the Department, resigned in September when he left the Diocese. He was succeeded by the Rev. Frederick W. Blatz. The Rev. J. Jarden Guenther was Secretary. The staff remained the same, i.e., Field Secretary, Miss Elizabeth P. Frazier; Office Secretary, Miss Beryl M. Newman; Director of the Church School by Mail, Miss Dorothy E. Kohl.

Starting last September Miss Margaret Earle volunteered two days a week in the office, and this help has been of great value to the work of the Department. Volunteers carrying on the work of the Department, by committee work, teaching, and special jobs, numbered 125.

There were about 1,544 visitors to the office recorded during the year, exclusive of those who came for meetings and conferences, and about 2,125 incoming telephone calls and 1,450 outgoing calls. The office had working contact with 179 of the 211 Parishes and Missions in the Diocese.

In June a committee was appointed to evaluate the work of the Department. It reported in September and October. From their recommendations, and those of the new Chairman, the following changes were made at the November meeting:

the name of the Department to be changed to the "Department of Christian Education," if the Diocesan Convention approves; Miss Frazier's and Miss Newman's titles changed to Administrative and Assistant Secretary, so as to make them more descriptive of their work.

For more efficient work, the Department was divided into four divisions, with appropriate committees, as listed below. The Executive Committee of the Department now consists of officers and three other Department members, twelve in all. The Department as a whole will meet four times a year, January, April, June and October. To keep the members informed and to leave Department meetings free for discussions of general aims and methods in Christian Education, a bulletin of the work of the various committees will be sent to the members. Between meetings the Executive Committee is empowered to act with its action subject to review by the Department.

Children's Division

Chairman, Miss Helen W. McHenry (since November).

Committee on Church Schools—Chairman, Rev. J. Wesley Twelves.

The Lenten Offering raised under the supervision of this committee amounted to $38,823.43, which was a decrease of $522.37 over the previous year. The offering was again presented at a great outdoor service at the Episcopal Academy, and although gasoline restrictions started the week before, the attendance was estimated to be the same as last year, about 3,000. Seven hundred children from 49 Junior choirs were in attendance with processional crosses and banners. Ninety-nine Parish representatives went forward to place their offering (symbolically) on the offering plates held by the Deans.

The Advent Offering from the children of the Diocese, amounting to $1,077.37 from 40 Parishes, was given for the repairing of the Parish house of the Church of the Annunciation which is to be used by St. Christopher's Mission. The sale of Church Kalendars, originally used to raise money for the Advent Offering but in later years by adult groups, has been transferred to the Woman's Auxiliary.

Through Mrs. Charles Landreth, the Christmas Box Secretary, 19 Parishes supplied 372 Christmas gifts and $130.00 in cash to Missions in the domestic and foreign fields.

Institutions and Missions in the Diocese received Christmas gifts from many of our Church Schools.

In June an exhibit of Church School courses and materials was set up in the assembly room of the Church House, with leaders to give advice on curriculum planning. The idea was that Rectors and Superintendents could look over materials and make plans for the fall. The attendance was very small but those who came seemed to appreciate this service.

The Birthday Thank Offering, though not promoted in this Diocese, amounted to $38.98 from five Parishes.

Committee on Vacation Church Schools—Chairman, until September, the Rev. Charles Martin. From November, the Rev. Charles Coldren.

Greater publicity was given to Vacation Schools than ever before. The Forward in Service Commission made it part of their program and the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of Germantown offered financial aid to Churches in their Convocation. The results were disappointing as there was no great increase in the number of schools. As far as we know there were 19 old schools, 4 new school and 8 community schools. An Institute was held in the spring for the training of leaders. The value of this means of Christian Education is not yet realized by the Diocese.

Committee on Weekday Religious Education—Chairman, Miss Helen C. Washburn.

This committee held its first meeting November 18, 1941. The first piece of work was the formulating of objectives and a plan of action.

The Pennsylvania State Council of Christian Education furnished a list of places within the Diocese where Weekday Schools were conducted, and the committee canvassed them to find out in which ones the Episcopal Church was cooperating. Three places were discovered, Jenkintown, Clifton Heights and Radnor Township. A careful study was made of these three centers and the communities in which they were situated. The Episcopal School at St. Stephen's Church, Clifton Heights, was found to be in need of help and also a good center for experimental purposes.

A survey was made throughout the Diocese to secure a list of qualified, available teachers, and a committee interviewed each applicant. We have on file a list of some 25 teachers who were selected from the 75 names originally submitted to the committee.

When it was decided to take over the school in Clifton Heights, a few clergy were approached for contributions. Thirteen gifts were received totalling $225.00. This sum enabled the school to get started and run until the end of the year. In the meantime the item, $600.00, was accepted as a Special for 1943. Though only a few months old, the Clifton Heights venture is proving a valuable laboratory for children, teachers, curriculum, methods, worship, parent and community cooperation.

Subcommittees are now studying curriculum, methods of recruiting new teachers and plans for training prospective teachers.

The committee is represented on the State and City Councils of Weekday Religious Education, and close cooperation is in progress through various subcommittees.

Church School by Mail—Chairman, The Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel, Jr.

During the past year lessons were sent to 353 children. Of this number, 40 have succeeded in attending the nearest Church School, 28 have moved away, and 16 have outgrown the school, leaving the present total of 269, eight more than a year ago. The average response to the lessons during the year was 75%, which is shown by the returned question sheets. The children contributed $20.01 to the Lenten Offering. One hundred and eighty-nine visits were made to the families, with the help of 14 volunteer drivers. One hundred and thirty-one scholarships of $3.00 each, which pays for materials and mailing, were given by Church Schools, Youth, and Women's groups. Towards the end of the year there was indication that the enrollment would increase, due to gasoline restrictions, as one Church School enrolled some of their children.

Youth Division

Chairman, until October, the Rev. T. Norman Mason, then the Rev. John N. Peabody.

The "All Youth Service" was held in Holy Trinity Church on March 8. It was planned by the Youth Division and sponsored by all youth groups. There was an attendance of about 400 from 46 Parishes and Missions. The Whitsunday Corporate Communion for Youth was promoted and, at the request of the National Youth Division, an effort was made to ascertain the number of Parishes cooperating, and the attendance. Ninety-two reported. Of those, 84 held services with about 2,950 young people in attendance.

The Rev. Curtis Junker, Field Secretary of the National Youth Division, visited the Diocese from October 27 to November 15 to help the work of our Youth Division by talking to clergy, lay and youth groups, and conferring with youth leaders. This visit was greatly appreciated. The Diocesan Youth Convention was held at Christ Church on November 7 with 230 in attendance from 68 Parishes and Missions.

Adult Division

Chairman, the Rev. Robert W. Bagnall, LL.D. (starting in November).

Committee on Schools of Christian Education—Chairman, since October, Miss Margaret E. Earle.

Before the reorganization the fall school was under the Teacher Training Commission with the Rev. Frederick W. Blatz as Chairman, and the Winter Conference was under the Summer Conference Board with the Rev. Harvey D. Butterfield as President. The Winter Conference was held in the Church House and Holy Trinity Parish House and Church on five Tuesday evenings, January 13 to February 10. There were 30 courses offered. One hundred and ninety-eight persons registered from 66 Parishes.

The School of Christian Education was held in the Church House on seven Tuesday evenings, October 24 to December 1. There were 10 classes and an assembly period. One hundred and twenty-three registered.

Committee on the Summer Conference—The Rev. Harvey D. Butterfield, Chairman.

In the reorganization of the Department, the Summer Conference Board decided to become a committee of the Department and the Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel became Chairman.

The fourth Diocesan Summer Conference was held at Ursinus College from June 28 to July 3. Because the College had an accellerated schedule 100 College boys were in attendance, but the two groups cooperated well and there were no difficulties. Due to the illness of the Rev. Harvey D. Butterfield, the Rev. Frederick W. Blatz was Director of the Conference. One hundred and eight students attended and 21 were on the faculty and staff. Two-thirds of the group were under 25 years, the age limit was lowered from 16 to 15. Over 100 attended the early Celebration every morning. The spirit of the Conference was even better than other years.

Committee on the Church School Institute—Until the reorganization the Institute was under the Teacher Training Commission. In November the Rev. Charles Ehly was made Chairman of this new committee.

The 72nd Annual Church School Institute was held at the Christian Association on October 5. The theme was "The Use of the Bible in Christian Education." The exhibit and conferences were planned around this theme and Bishop Taitt and Bishop Hart (then Bishop elect) spoke at the supper which was attended by 312, the capacity of the room. Others went out to supper and came back, while still others came just for the evening meeting. The spirit was exceptionally friendly and enthusiastic.

Committee on Adult Education—Though the Department has cooperated with the Forward in Service study program, and advised in adult education those coming to the office, there has been no formal committee work. In the reorganization and in consultation with the Woman's Auxiliary, a committee is being set up consisting of three members from the Auxiliary's Department of Christian Education, and three from our Department, which promises to do good work in this field.

Church School-by-Mail

Enrollment—353 children have been on the roll during the year; 40 succeeded in getting into a Sunday School, 28 moved, and 16 have outgrown us, leaving the present total of 269 in the following Convocations:

Chester Convocation	181
Germantown Convocation	48
Norristown Convocation	32
West Philadelphia Convocation	3
Diocese of Albany, New York	4
New Mexico	1
	269

Lessons—12,075 lessons were prepared and mailed, in addition to Bibles, Prayer Books, pictures, prayer cards, scrapbooks, folders, paste, crayons, Forward Day by Day, and Missionary story books and leaflets.

Seventy-five per cent response was received by returned question sheets and letters. The question sheets were corrected and sent back with personal letters.

Mite Boxes were mailed to each family, and an offering of $20.01 received.

Correspondence—1,500 personal letters were written to the children and parents; and mimeographed letters were sent during Lent, in the fall, and at Christmas to our 98 families. Parents' names were given the League for the Isolated to receive Forwards.

Two hundred and eighty-five letters were written to the scholarship donors soliciting and acknowledging scholarships, and soliciting donations for Christmas.

Ninety letters were mailed the rural clergy, as well as 101 family case histories; and 194 other business letters were written.

Records—An index card was made of each family, and records made of visits and findings. Enrollment sheets were typed for each grade, and records of material sent, and response, were made. Scholarship and Christmas lists were typed, and records kept of cash expenditures.

Visiting and Canvassing—189 visits were made to families, and 14 drivers were used. Six public schools were visited, and 17 Districts were canvassed in Chester and Germantown Convocations.

Promotional—Four articles were written for The Church News and W. A. Annual. Three reports were made—one annual, one semi-annual and one of the National Conference for Rural Workers by Correspondence held in New York. Ten speeches were made to groups, and approximately 20 individual contacts were made to tell about the work. Approximately 50 visitors came to the office. One hundred and thirty-one Scholarships were received from W. A. branches, Church Schools, and individuals.

Two hundred and seventy-nine Christmas gifts were mailed, 50 by St. Andrew's, Yardley; 21 by St. Giles; 24 by Mrs. Biddle; while 179 were mailed by us with donations received from the Junior W. A., the League for the Isolated, and the W. A. branches, Church Schools, and individuals giving scholarships.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Registrar

The canonical duties of the Registrar have been duly performed through the year, and the statistical records of the Diocese, viz: Episcopal Acts within the Diocese, list of Clergymen canonically resident, and of all Churches, Chapels, or Mission stations of the Diocese, with a description of their location and property, appear in their proper places in the JOURNAL.

Numerous requests for Certificates of Baptism, records of Marriages and Burials, and information of historical and biographical character have been complied with in so far as the records were available.

H. W. GERNAND,
Registrar.

APPENDIX I

Report of The Church Foundation to The Annual Convention of 1943

During the year The Church Foundation lost the services of its Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. William White, Jr., who entered the Service. The Board accepted his resignation as Secretary and Treasurer, but refused to accept his resignation as a member of the Board, and it is hoped that the Convention will nominate him for re-election, he to have leave of absence for the duration. Mr. Louis M. Washburn, whose father was long a member of the Board, was elected in his place. Mr. William M. Elkins resigned in order that Mr. E. O. Coates could be elected in his place.

As of December 31, 1942, the investments which The Church Foundation holds in trust were (book values) $1,610,945.18, of which $202,329.68, or 12½%, are Governments (U. S., $181,585.93—Canada, $14,288.75—Newfoundland, $1,980—Argentine, $14,288.75); $690,909.66, or 43%, Corporate Bonds of all kinds (less than 1% being in default); $315,128.31, or 20%, in Mortgages, all paying currently; $242,808.49, or 15%, Real Estate (48 rented properties); $134,907, or 8%, in Stocks (86% of them Preferred), and Miscellaneous, $24,861.94, or 1½%.

The amount of real estate is being steadily reduced through sales at much less loss of book values than heretofore, but the amount in mortgages tends to remain about the same for the reason that, while all are being amortized and some paid off, many sales of real estate result in purchase money mortgages being taken in part payment. However, such mortgages seldom result in losses, and practically all our weak mortgages have been foreclosed, and the security of the remainder is being increased through amortization payments. The proportion in ordinary corporate bonds will probably be reduced, and that in Governments increased, in accordance with present-day practice. But in funds of this character, where the beneficiaries have become dependent upon the income, it is necessary to proceed slowly in changes which will reduce the return. The amount in Common Stocks will be increased when and as market conditions become favorable, and amortization payments produce money for investment. But such purchases will only be made for the Consolidated Investment Fund (explained below), where there can be diversification, and the proportion is limited by action of the Board.

The Consolidated Investments Fund

Practically all large trust companies have availed themselves of the powers given them by recent Acts of the Legislature to set up what are called Common Trust Funds, for the greater safety of the principal of the several funds and the more convenient and profitable investment thereof. Being assured by the Chancellor that they could set up a similar fund (but under a different and somewhat more liberal Act of the Legislature), in regard to their trust funds, the Board of Directors of The Church Foundation have set up such a fund, units in which are sold to the several funds, not restricted to Legals, in return for the transfer of cash and securities from those funds to the Consolidated Fund, provided the principal of such funds is not withdrawable.

It is called "The Consolidated Investments Fund" because it is desired to make clear that there is no consolidation of the several funds, each of which will have its identity, purposes and assets preserved on the books of the Fiscal Agent as heretofore. But, instead of having their whole principal invested in a few, often less than half a dozen, investments or types of investments, they will exchange such securities as they now hold, provided they are deemed suitable for inclusion in the Consolidated Fund, for units in the same, together with such further number of units as their uninvested cash may be sufficient to buy. Only such securities as measure up to the standards fixed by the Board will be put in the Consolidated Fund, and at their market value at the time of putting them in. No bonds upon which the interest has not been paid in full for the last three years, or upon which the interest is contingent or uncertain, will be put in the Fund, and no participating mortgage or real estate bonds, and no mortgages or real estate.

Securities of all kinds not put in the Consolidated Fund will remain in the funds where they now are, where they will be watched, and if holding them longer does not seem to be justified they will be sold and the proceeds used to buy units in the Fund. In this way, as unprofitable securities are sold, and mortgages paid off, and real estate disposed of, the assets of the several funds will come to consist almost entirely of units in the Consolidated Fund. This will result in an enormous saving in accounting, for the coupons of a single issue of bonds, or the dividends on a hundred or more shares of stock, instead of, as now, having to be divided among dozens of separate funds, will all go to the Consolidated Fund, involving just one bookkeeping entry. At the end of each quarter the net income of the Consolidated Fund will be distributed, as a dividend, among the several funds owning units and, together with such other income as may have come into the several funds, will be distributed to the beneficiaries. What is more important is that there will be much greater safety of principal than is possible where there can be little diversification, and where each fund, especially the small ones, must sink or swim by itself. People have been heard to say that they do not want to share the losses of other funds, but it is not likely that any will object to have others share their losses, or to sharing the gains of other funds. It has been the experience of probably all handling small trust funds that they can be almost entirely, indeed, entirely lost, because of some disaster to the security or securities in which they were invested. This cannot happen to small funds in a consolidated fund unless the latter is completely lost, which is unthinkable in one of sufficient size and diversification. The problem of investing, separately, the principal balances in the several funds has hitherto been especially difficult, first, because those balances could usually only be invested in blocks of $1,000 each, which meant that if the amount was under $1,000, little could be done about it, and if it was over $1,000, or $2,000, etc., the balance had to remain uninvested. In this way we usually had many thousands of uninvested money, perhaps as much as $10,000 uninvested and idle for long periods. With the Consolidated Fund anything over $10 can be used to buy units and thus be put to work. Secondly, a security which the Committee might consider a desirable investment might be unfitted for a particular fund because overloading that fund with investments of a particular type.

At the time of setting up of the Consolidated Investments Fund the total securities therein amounted, in market value, to a little over $631,000, with some $40,000 uninvested cash, or about 42% of the investments in The Church Foundation. It is interesting to note that the market value on the day of setting up was some $28,000 more than the cost or book values of the securities in the several contributing funds. Further securities and cash can be added to the Fund quarterly, after a fresh appraisal of the securities therein.

It is believed that the setting up of this Consolidated Investments Fund will increase the attractiveness of The Church Foundation as a Trustee for large and small trust funds, and better fit The Church Foundation to serve the Church in this Diocese as the Designated Trustee for Churches and Charities. To vestries handling comparatively large funds we would point out that, no matter how ably they may do so, it is not likely that in many cases they have the opportunities of diversification and safety which our Consolidated Fund affords. And while, hitherto, small trust funds have been expensive and difficult to handle, and the expense out of proportion to the income, we will now be able to handle such accounts much more easily, and accept additions to the same from time to time, because of being able to put small sums to work, and with a minimum of accounting.

But it will be well to point out that The Church Foundation is set up only to act as a Trustee of permanent trusts, and therefore cannot accept Agency Accounts. An Agency Account is usually just a business arrangement by which the agent agrees to do whatever it is directed to do in the matter of investments, and the arrangement may be terminated at any time. It leaves those who arrange with the agent in complete control of the funds. A Trustee, on the other hand, actually owns the funds in trust, and is obligated to invest them and pay only the income to the beneficiaries, and must follow his own judgment in the matter of investing, and cannot permit himself to be influenced by the wishes of present beneficiaries if the same might work injuriously for those who come later.

The purpose of putting Church funds in trust is that they may be preserved for the benefit of the next and succeeding generations and The Church Foundation was set up to afford such protection. An agency account affords no protection except from theft, a legitimate function but one that belongs to commercial institutions, and the money can always be withdrawn. Donors who wish to make sure that their gifts will be used for the purposes they have in mind, and vestries who have doubts as to the ability of future vestries to manage funds as well as they believe they can, would do well to consider putting such funds in trust with The Church Foundation, the managers of which are not subject to the influences and considerations which sometimes sway vestrymen. And The Church Foundation is always under the control of the proper Court.

If a vestry is already trustee of a fund or funds, which happens whenever money is left as a permanent fund, the interest only to be used, they may appoint an agent but they cannot divest themselves of the trusteeship or appoint anyone else trustee, but may apply to the proper Court for the appointment of a Substitute Trustee, for example, The Church Foundation, which is not a difficult or expensive proceeding, and thus be relieved of the responsibilities. The Church Foundation does not make a practice of seeking business, as any increase only adds to the responsibilities of those managing it, but does believe that its purpose and facilities should be fully understood.

The names of the members of the Board of Directors are always published in the JOURNAL. The public may be interested in knowing those who compose the Committee on Investments and, under supervision by the Board, decide investment questions. They are: Frank H. Moss, of Frank H. Moss & Co.; Lee Sowden, President, North Philadelphia Trust Co.; Reed A. Morgan; E. C. Bendere, Federal Reserve; S. P. Clark, of E. W. Clark & Co.; E. Osborne Coates, of Elkins, Morris & Co.; T. Report of the Chairman of the Committee on Canons to the Convention of 1943 on Amendments to the Constitution of the General Convention

At the Convention of 1941 the Secretary reported that he had received copies of 10 Amendments to the Constitution of the General Convention which had been sent down for the information of the Dioceses. It was directed that these be referred to the Committee on Canons for report to the Convention of 1942. However, no copy of the Amendments was sent to the Committee on Canons and no report was made by said Committee to the Convention of 1942. Doubtless due to changes in the office of Secretary of the Convention the attention of the Committee on Canons was not notified that such a report would be expected at this Convention and none has been prepared by the Committee. The Chairman wishes to express the regret of the Committee that this matter should have been overlooked. It did not occur to him until Sunday evening last, and he has since prepared a list of the proposed Amendments for the information of this Convention.

Possibly the most interesting of the proposed Amendments are two which give Suffragan Bishops a vote as well as a seat in the House of Bishops. Like all the rest of these Amendments this has been agreed to by both houses of the General Convention and will come up for final action this year. This Diocese not having at present any Suffragan Bishops its delegation will be able to vote their convictions on this proposition without any embarrassment. In the House of Bishops in 1940 a proposition preventing Suffragan Bishops in a Missionary District from being elected as Bishops of Diocese for five years after consecration was voted down in the House of Bishops. Not a few in this Diocese, on account of some experiences we went through not so long ago, have a feeling that it would make for peace and harmony in Dioceses if Suffragan Bishops were not eligible for election as Bishops in their own Dioceses, but eligible in all other Dioceses. However, that proposition does not seem to have been brought up in the General Convention, but might well be brought up there.

Another important Amendment coming up for final action is the entirely new provision reading as follows, "Upon attaining the age of seventy-two years a Bishop shall tender his resignation from his jurisdiction."

Due to the courteous action of our Diocesan in tendering his resignation many months ago our delegation will be able to vote their convictions on this proposition without any qualms.

Then there is provision made for two or more Dioceses desiring to be united into one Diocese, a thing decidedly overdue not a hundred miles away from here, but into the details of which it is not necessary to enter.

Another Amendment provides for the establishment of a See for the Presiding Bishop, and which, in case the See comprises the whole or the greater part of a Diocese, would authorize the Diocese to elect an Auxiliary or Assistant Bishop. The Bishop of the Diocese in which the See is located, or such Auxiliary or Assistant Bishop, shall have such powers and duties with reference to the said See as shall be prescribed by Canon or Canons, by which the status of such Auxiliary or Assistant Bishop shall likewise be defined. The General Convention may, at any time, abolish such See.

It would seem to be desirable that the Convention should make up its mind whether it wants the helping Bishop to be called Auxiliary or Assistant. And mentioning "Canon or Canons" is somewhat ambiguous. Canons of the Diocese or of the General Convention?

Two other Amendments give deputies from Missionary Districts beyond the territory of the United States one Clerical and one Lay Deputy from the Convocation of Churches in Europe the same right to cast one-fourth vote as the Domestic Missionary Districts were given by the last Convention, or at least, are intended to.

In reporting on a certain Amendment to come up before the General Convention of 1940, giving a vote to Missionary District delegations, the Committee on Canons pointed out that the Amendment might be construed as giving a full and not a one-quarter vote to such Districts. I believe our delegation called attention to this but the Amendment was passed, nevertheless. However, the same Convention started on its way a new Amendment curing the defect Pennsylvania pointed out and this comes up for approval this year.

A proposed Amendment on Alterations in the Book of Common Prayer puzzles me. It only changes a few words and I have not been able to make out the significance thereof.

I desire to call to the attention of our delegation that there may be serious doubt, under the proposed Amendments, whether the Deputies from the Churches in Europe, if such ever arrive, will have a right to vote. This thing does not appear to have been thoroughly thought out, and Amendments 4, 5 and 9 perhaps should be recast. All that Amendment 4 does is to take out of the present provision allowing Missionary Districts to send Deputies the words "except the right to vote" after the statement that they shall have all the rights of other deputies. Well, then, what are the rights of other Deputies in the matter of voting? If they are from Dioceses they cast full votes, if they are from Missionary Districts they cast one-fourth votes? Which are the Churches in Europe? They have never been known either as Dioceses or as Missionary Districts. There should have been no difficulty on making this perfectly clear, but it has not been done, just as it was not done in the case of the Amendment that Pennsylvania objected to last year.

Respectfully submitted,

F. C. Hartshorne.

APPENDIX K

Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions

The Rectors' Salaries and Pensions Committee has been functioning in the Diocese since 1921. From time to time, it has seemed wise to direct the attention of the members of the Diocesan Convention to a brief review of this work, its purposes and objectives, and the methods used to attain these ends.

The primary purpose grew out of the definite need to provide a minimum salary for every Clergyman working in the Diocese that would be adequate for living expenses. This minimum took into consideration the length of time of ordination and the fact of a Clergyman being single or married. After five years in the Ministry this minimum salary became $2,100, and a house or provision for it. The Commission was charged to provide out of a fund known as the Sustentation Fund, eventually raised by an assessment on all Parishes and Missions, such a sum of money as would increase the aided Parishes giving to their Rector's stipend to make the same $2,100. The Commission was further charged to confer with the Parishes in an effort to have their Congregations stimulated to as large a giving as possible.

The Convention of 1921 had thought it might need $50,000 to achieve this end, but this proved to be too large a sum, and the good work of aiding Parishes to give their Rector this new minimum required some $37,000. From that time on, the amount of money needed has decreased yearly, except for some increases in the years 1933-1934. The year 1931 was the occasion for the smallest sum required, $8,380, for aid to ten Parishes. Not only did the Lay Members largely gather the original fund together, but from the beginning they have felt it their duty to confer with Rectors and Vestries and Congregations, seeking to help them find ways of greater helpfulness for themselves.

For a number of years past, the Commission has required of all Parishes asking for a grant to submit a budget for the year ahead and a clear statement of expected income from every possible source. There has also been required an Every Member Canvass. Both the Clerical and Lay Members of the Commission have given aid in stimulating this latter work, have helped those in authority in Parishes to explore every avenue of effort to increase giving and reduce expenditures, and have instilled the hope of making yearly decreases in the amount asked for, so that eventually the Parish would again be entirely self sustaining. The efforts on the part of the members of Commission have met with wholehearted cooperation and success in nearly every Aided Parish. It would be impossible to narrate the many problems faced by Parishes where there has come a shifting of population, changes of neighborhood, loss of industries that employed the members of the Congregation, sicknesses and catastrophies in the lives of Rectors which put a burden too heavy to be borne by the Parish, and a host of others.

Very often the need of a grant from this fund is not for a long period. Aided Parishes might well be classified as those having a temporary problem and those where the conditions causing the difficulty are seemingly of a permanent character. A careful study of the Aided Parishes during 1942 reveals the fact that many might be termed as having a financial problem of long standing, yet these Parishes are ministering to a large number of Communicant members of our Church and are helping to build up the Kingdom of God in their respective location. The following statistics gathered from the Parish Reports in the Journal for 1942 reveal that the twenty Parishes aided by grants in 1942 have 5634 Communicant members, 2592 members in the Church School, 268 Baptisms, 208 Confirmations, gave or raised over $90,000 themselves, and have Church property valued at $1,753,183.

The above figures reveal the fact that the Aided Parishes of the Diocese of Pennsylvania exceed in many ways a number of Dioceses in our Church. As one member of the Commission stated on a previous occasion when this work was reviewed, "Such are not the signs of death but of life." To this must be added the cheering note, that some six Parishes asked for a decreased grant and three Parishes assumed full responsibility for their Rectors' salaries in 1943.

The increased cost of living made it necessary to give a grant of $100 to each Rector receiving the minimum salary in addition to the sum asked for by the Parish. This was in line with similar grants made by the Diocese to all Vicars of Missions. This year a special fund is in process of collection to again augment the salaries of all Vicars and Rectors of Aided Parishes. For these many years past the Diocese of Pennsylvania has made possible adequate salaries for the Clergy in Parishes that have sustained financial reverses and thereby have maintained ministrations to thousands of Communicants as well as adding many souls to the Kingdom of God. And the members of this Commission have been untiring in their efforts to carry out the responsibilities placed upon them by the Convention, having regard for both the Clergy and Aided Parishes on the one hand, and the safeguarding of the Diocese on the other.

The matter of caring for the Pensions of the Clergy has been another duty of the Commission. The course of securing full cooperation in the payment of the Clergy Pension premiums has closely paralleled the work of aiding the Rectors to receive the minimum salary. Some years ago as much as $2,000 had to be paid out to safeguard the Clergy of the Diocese and their widows in this matter. For the past five or six years not a dollar had to be advanced. Last year it was necessary to advance a sum just over a hundred dollars, which was done in protection of the widows of Clergymen whose husbands might have died during the year.

Respectfully submitted by the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions.

JAMES M. NIBLO, Chairman.

APPENDIX L

Report of the Committee on the Relation of the Convention to the Diocese

The Convention of 1942 directed your Committee to report this year a Canon involving a suggested basis for proportionate representation in the Convention, for which the way had previously been cleared by a duly adopted constitutional amendment.

Your Committee has met and carefully considered the subject. There were two bases of representation submitted for consideration—(1) based on Communicants, which is the foundation adopted in nearly all the Dioceses that have such proportionate representation, and (2) based upon the number in each Parish entitled to vote at the annual election for Vestrymen. Against the first could be stressed the perpetual trouble that most of the Clergy have in keeping their Communicant lists accurate and up-to-date; and against the second (which would eliminate all minors), could be urged the great difficulty of persuading the Accounting Wardens concerned to certify from time to time the number entitled to vote at their annual elections for Vestrymen, as elections in most Parishes involve such a small number of voters that an eligible list is rarely compiled.

Your Committee were of the opinion that in the midst of war, with so many more urgent subjects demanding the attention of the Convention, and with the absences in the armed forces of so many of the active laymen who might be the nominees for any additional lay deputies from their Parishes, neither of these alternatives could be adequately presented and debated at this time. The Committee accordingly requests expressions of opinion on individual preferences between these two alternative bases, or on any other basis that might be suggested, and recommends that it be continued for an opportunity for further study of the problem and to report further to the Convention of 1944.

Report of the Cathedral Chapter

The customary Sunday Services have been maintained at the Cathedral Church of Christ throughout the past year. The Rev. Clarence E. Ball, who has celebrated the 9 o'clock Service of Holy Communion and the 4 o'clock Service of Evening Prayer each Sunday for a number of years past, retired from active ministry at the age of eighty-eight years. At present pastoral care is being extended to families in the neighborhood of the Cathedral.

The outstanding gift to the Cathedral during the year was the Chime of Bells presented by the Vestry of St. Matthias' Church, Philadelphia, upon the occasion of that parish's merger with another congregation. The bells are carefully stored at the Cathedral and will some day peal forth when building operations permit the erection of a tower. No additions have been made to the physical structure of the Cathedral but care has been taken to place the present building in a condition of greater protection from the elements.

The Chapter has continued its efforts to obtain full title to the property. This is requiring a longer time than would have been necessary under normal conditions, since a number of heirs to several estates must be contacted. It is hoped that further building may be begun at the close of the war.

Registrar.

APPENDIX N

Report of the Joint Commission on Evangelism and the Forward Movement, 1942-43

The Joint Commission has continued to apply the plans of the National Commission on Forward in Service within this Diocese. As far as possible, existing agencies have been used, and in particular, the Joint Commission has co-operated with the Women's Auxiliary, the Retreat Association, and the Department of Religious Education.

The Joint Commission, during the past year, has prepared and distributed to the clergy the following material:

A Calendar of Forward in Service for 1942-43.
A series of lessons for Advent.
A Preaching Sequence for the year.
A monthly Bulletin, issued in 1943.

Three Conferences of the Clergy of the Diocese have been held during the year; at the Episcopal Academy in June, and at Holy Trinity in September and January.

JOHN K. SHRYOCK,
Chairman.

APPENDIX O

Report of the Committee on Charters

I. The Committee on Charters has considered the application of "St. Augustine's Protestant Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania," for approval of their proposed Articles of Incorporation and for admission into union with the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee finds that the proposed Articles have received the approval of the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therewith, finding them to be in substantial agreement with the approved Form of Charter, and also that the proposed Parish was organized in conformity with the requirements of the Canons of the Diocese, and offers the following Resolutions:

RESOLVED:

1. That the application of St. Augustine's Protestant Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for approval of their proposed Charter be granted and permission given to apply to the proper Court to grant the same.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

2. That the Parish be admitted into union with this Convention and that its delegates be given seats therein, but without votes during this session.

WALTER C. PUGH, Chairman.

II. The Committee on Charters has considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Andrew's Church at Yardleyville in the County of Bucks" for approval of certain amendments to their Charter, changing the name of the Corporation to "St. Andrew's Church of Yardley and making sundry other changes.

The proposed amendments have been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee and the Committee on Charters concurs therein, finding that the amendments bring the Charter into substantial conformity with the approved Form of Charter, and offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the amended Charter of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Andrew's Church, Yardleyville, in the County of Bucks" be approved and permission be given to apply to the proper Court to grant the same.

WALTER C. PUGH, Chairman.

III. The Committee on Charters has considered the application of the "Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of Trinity Church in Oxford Township, Philadelphia County" for approval of certain amendments to their Charter changing the number of vestrymen and making certain other changes.

The Committee finds: That these amendments have already been presented to and granted by the Court through an error as to the proper procedure; that the amendments are themselves consistent with the approved Form of Charter; that, however, the remainder of the Charter does not substantially agree therewith; that the amendments have been seen by the Bishop, and considered by the Standing Committee. Under the circumstances of the prior approval by the Court, and the acceptability in themselves of these amendments, the Committee on Charters offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the application of the "Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of Trinity Church in Oxford Township, Philadelphia County" for approval of two amendments in their Charter be granted.

WALTER C. PUGH, Chairman.

IV. The Committee on Charters has considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of the Church of St. Matthias" for approval of amendments of their Charter changing the title of the Corporation to "Church of St. Matthias" and making sundry other changes.

The Committee finds that the amended Charter is in proper form, being substantially that of the approved Form of Charter, and that it has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee.

The Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention, offering the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the amendments to the Charter of "The Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of the Church of St. Matthias be approved, and that permission be granted to apply to the proper Court to grant the same.

WALTER C. PUGH, Chairman.

V. Through the courtesy of Dr. George B. Hawkes your Committee has recently learned that Canon IV, Sect. I, paragraph 5, and a part of Article 9, Sect. 3, of the Approved Form of Charter, have been the subject of an adverse decision by the Court of Common Pleas No. 1 of Philadelphia County in proceedings to which the Diocese was not a party.

Your Committee deems it in the interest of the Diocese that Convention establish a Committee to inquire into the situation thus presented and to protect by any and all appropriate action the interests of the Diocese. We suggest a Committee of five with the Chancellor of the Diocese as Chairman and with representatives of the Standing Committee, the Church Foundation and the Committee on Charters included.

We submit a Resolution as follows:

RESOLVED, That a committee of five be and it is hereby established to examine into the situation presented by the ruling of the Court of Common Pleas No. 1 of Philadelphia County in the matter of the amended Charter of the Church of the Incarnation, Philadelphia, with power to take action to protect the interests of the Diocese. The Chancellor shall be the Chairman of the Committee which shall include representatives of the Standing Committee, the Church Foundation and the Committee on Charters. The Committee shall report to the Convention of 1944.

For the Committee. WALTER C. PUGH, Chairman.

VI. Your Committee has considered the Resolution on the subject of Article 9, Section 3, of the Approved Form of Charter, submitted by Dr. Hawkes, and asks that it may be referred to the Committee established in accordance with the preceding Resolution.

For the Committee. WALTER C. PUGH, Chairman.

VII.

WHEREAS, The Canons of this Diocese require that proposed applications for Charters, or for the amendment of Charters of Parishes be submitted to the Bishop, to the Standing Committee and to the Committee on Charters of the Diocese, and by the Committee on Charters reported to the Diocesan Convention for action thereon before the presentation to the Court of such applications; and

WHEREAS, It has not infrequently occurred that such Canons are not observed, and that Charters are obtained or amended without the knowledge or approval of the Convention; and

WHEREAS, By the Laws of June 20, 1935, P. L. 353, the Canons of this Diocese are made binding upon its Communicants and Parishes; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Bishop of the Diocese be, and hereby is requested to take all proper steps through the Chancellor of the Diocese to inform the Courts of Common Pleas of the five Counties composing this Diocese of the existence of these Canons.

For the Committee. WALTER C. PUGH, Chairman.

APPENDIX P

Report of the Committee on Canons to the Convention of 1943

The Executive Council has requested that the following Resolution in Amendment of the Canons be presented to the Convention:

RESOLVED, That wherever in the Canons the words "Religious Education" occur they be changed to "Christian Education."

The Committee on Charters has suggested that it would be helpful in the case of Missions or other groups of Church people desiring to form Parishes and be admitted to union with the Convention, if there were printed a small pamphlet setting forth the various steps to be taken for that purpose. But before that is done the Committee on Canons believes it will be desirable to re-write the Canon on the subject in order to clear up a few ambiguities therein. It therefore recommends that Canon XI, Of the Organization of New Parishes be amended so that it shall read:

CANON XI

OF THE FORMATION OF NEW PARISHES

SEC. I. The procedure for the formation of a new Parish desiring to be admitted into union with the Convention shall be as follows:

1. If the new Parish is to succeed to a Mission organized under the Canon Of the Organization of Missions there shall be a written application made to the Bishop and the Standing Committee for consent to such formation, which application shall be signed by the officers of the Mission provided for in said Canon, who have been authorized to act in the matter by a vote of a majority of the registered contributors of full age who have been regular contributors for one year prior to such application.

2. If there be no Organized Mission to take action, and if the place of worship of the proposed Parish be a new one, it will be necessary to first proceed under the provisions of the Canon Of the Establishment of New Places of Worship to obtain the consent of the Bishop provided for in said Canon. Said consent having been obtained an application shall be made to the Bishop and the Standing Committee for consent to the formation of the new Parish, which application shall be signed by fifteen Communicants of full age who intend to become members of the proposed Parish.

3. The application in either of the above cases shall contain the following information:

(a) The location, or proposed location of the Church and its distances from the three nearest places of worship of this Church and of three of any other Christian Churches, the names of which shall be given.
(b) The number of families and individuals who would probably be included in the congregation.
(c) The reasons for desiring to form a Parish.
(d) The names of those chosen as officers of the Parish.

4. There shall also be filed with the Bishop and the Standing Committee a written guarantee, signed by responsible persons and good for two years, that the new Parish will, for that period, and without assistance from any Diocesan fund, pay its Rector at least the minimum salary to which he shall be entitled under the Canons, and, in addition to said guarantee, evidence from which the Bishop and the Standing Committee may estimate the probability of the Parish being able to pay such minimum beyond the two-year period.

SEC. II. A signed copy of the proposed Charter of Incorporation of the new Parish shall be submitted to the Bishop, the Standing Committee and the Committee on Charters. If the formation of the new Parish and its proposed Charter be approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee after report thereon by the Committee on Charters, such approvals shall be certified in writing and shall be reported to the next Convention, together with a report of all matters coming before the Bishop, the Standing Committee and the Committee on Charters in this connection, and the proceedings had thereon, and such approvals and reports shall be considered sufficient compliance with the requirements of the Canon Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Convention.

Beyond a few verbal changes and a rearranging of its several parts there is nothing new in the proposed Canon except the omission of the word "male" before "Communicants" in SEC. I, 2, in describing those who shall sign the application for the new parish. It is no longer wise or justifiable to expect women to do most of the work and share none of the honors or responsibilities. And the cutting down of the length of the required guarantee of the salary of the Rector from three years to two. We are informed by the Standing Committee that difficulty has been found in obtaining a three-year guarantee, which is not at all surprising. The Committee suggests that a two-year one is all that should be required, especially if accompanied by information from which the Bishop and the Standing Committee may judge the ability of the Parish to carry on at the end of that period.

In Canon I, SEC. II, Sub-section 3, at the end thereof, occur the words, "copy" [of the Charter and Amendments] "duly authenticated according to law." The Committee suggests the amendment of that Canon and Section and Sub-section by deleting the words, "according to law," as meaningless and confusing.

THE CANON ON BUSINESS METHODS IN CHURCH AFFAIRS

This is Canon XVI. The Executive Council some time ago sent a copy of this Canon to all Accounting Wardens and Treasurers. The General Convention also adopted a Canon on the same subject, and, this year, sent a copy of it to Wardens and Treasurers in connection with directions accompanying the Parochial Report blanks. In this way it developed that there are two slight differences between our Canon and that of the General Convention. Of course it is undesirable that Parish authorities should receive conflicting instructions, and the Executive Council has asked the Committee on Canons to recommend to the Convention such a change in our Canon as will bring it into conformity with that of General Convention.

The first difference is in regard to the listing of approved depositories for Parish funds and securities, the General Convention Canon including in the list, "or other agency approved in writing by the Department of Finance," which do not appear in our Canon. The Committee on Canons therefore recommends that Canon XVI, SEC. 1 (a) be amended to read:

> "Trust and permanent funds and all securities of whatever kind shall be placed in the custody of a National or State Bank, Banking Institution or Trust Company, or other agency approved in writing by the Department of Finance, under a Trust or Agency Agreement, or with The Church Foundation under a Trust Agreement."

The other discrepancy is in regard to the audit requirements. Our Canon requires that all accounts shall be audited by a Certified Public Accountant. The General Convention Canon adds, "or by such accounting agency as shall be approved by the Finance Department." The Committee therefore recommends that the following Amendment be adopted:

> Amend Canon XVI, SEC. 1 (d) so that the first sentence thereof shall read:
> "The accounts of the organizations named above shall be annually audited by a Certified Public Accountant, or by such accounting agency as shall be approved by the Department of Finance of the Executive Council."

This change would seem to be desirable as giving the Department of Finance some flexibility in dealing with difficult cases. It does not mean that the doors will be thrown wide open to a return to the old system of careless and practically useless auditing. The Department will remain in control of the situation and need not approve of any substitute for a C. P. A. audit that it does not consider safe.

THE CANON ON THE STANDING COMMITTEE

Under the provisions of our present Canon the members of the Standing Committee are elected for only one year and the whole Committee has to be elected at each Annual Convention. This makes it possible that the whole membership of the Committee, or a large part of it, might be changed at any Convention. However improbable such a coup-d'etat may seem to be, it is a possibility that ought to be taken into consideration, for, for many reasons, such a drastic change in personnel would be very undesirable and almost disastrous. The functions of the Standing Committee are almost all essentially judicial, and any such body tends to work along lines of established policy as the result of long experience in the matters dealt with. A new set of men might, eventually, arrive at the same point, as to policies, as the others had, but in the meantime they would probably make a lot of mistakes. Moreover, the Standing Committee is the Bishop's council of advice, and after a time the Bishop comes to know what their advice would be, but in case a drastic change in the membership took place the established understanding between the two would be disrupted, and have to be established over again.

For the above and other reasons the Committee on Canons desires to report favorably the following Canon, suggested by the Rev. E. Felix Kloman, Rector of Old Christ Church, in so far as it provides for a five-year term for members of the Standing Committee and the election of only two members each year. The Committee is not, however, a unit as to the necessity or advisability of the proviso as to ineligibility for re-election after a five-year term, and submits that feature to the Convention without recommendation or prejudice. It is submitted that that is an independent feature of the Canon and that the rest could be enacted without it and prove perfectly workable. It is suggested that the best way to test the opinion of the Convention as to the proviso would be, after the Canon as a whole has been moved for adoption, a motion be made to amend it by eliminating the proviso as to ineligibility. If the Convention should vote to keep it in, the Canon would then come up for approval in its proposed form. If the Convention should vote to eliminate the proviso the question would then be on the approval of the Canon without that feature.

Proposed Amendment to Canon IV, Sec. I

Amend Canon IV, Sec. I, by repealing Sub-section 1 thereof, and substituting the two following Sub-sections therefor and renumbering the following Sub-sections:

CANON IV

Of Committees and Commissions

The Standing Committee

Sec. I—The Standing Committee

1. The Standing Committee of the Diocese shall consist of five Clergymen, canonically and actually resident in the Diocese, and five Lay Communicants, residents of the Diocese, chosen by ballot by the concurrent vote of the members of each Order.

2. At the Annual Convention of 1944 there shall be elected for membership in the Standing Committee five Clergymen and five Laymen, of whom one of each Order shall be deemed elected to serve one year, one of each Order to serve two years, one of each Order to serve three years, one of each Order to serve four years and one of each Order to serve five years. At their first meeting after the Convention of 1944 the elected members of the Standing Committee in each Order shall determine, by lot, the respective terms which they shall be considered to have been elected to serve. At each succeeding Annual Convention there shall be elected one Clergyman and one Layman to take the places of those whose terms shall then expire, to serve for five years.

3. No Clergyman or Layman who has served five years under the provision of this Canon shall be eligible for re-election until the expiration of one year from the termination of his five-year term; and so in the case of each succeeding five-year term that he may serve.

4. Vacancies in said Committee, whether due to deaths, removals from the Diocese, resignations, failure of the Convention to elect, or to any other cause, shall be filled by the concurrent vote of the remaining Clerical and Lay members, the member so elected to serve only until the next Annual Convention, when the Convention itself shall elect someone to take the place of the former member for the unexpired term, if any.

APPENDIX Q

Report of the Advisers on the Jefferies Home

On March 29, 1914, Elizabeth B. Jefferies, a member of a parish in this Diocese, died leaving a will in which she directed her trustees, after the death of a niece, to establish a home for aged clergymen and their wives of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The will does not require that the beneficiaries come from the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The niece died January 16, 1922, but as the trustees did not consider the estate large enough to establish a home, they have been accumulating the income ever since, which action has had the approval of the court. At the present time, it has been estimated that the annual income from the fund should be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

To establish the home at the present time would require expenditures of principal and a consequent reduction of the annual income to less than the estimated $10,000. It has been estimated by persons experienced in the management of homes for elderly people that not more than five or six people from the social stratum of the clergy could be cared for in a home operated on $10,000 a year.

In recent years, our Diocese has been interested in the Jefferies estate through a committee appointed by Bishop Taitt upon the direction of the Diocesan Convention. After exhaustive study this committee concluded that it would be unwise to establish a home such as that contemplated by Mrs. Jefferies. This conclusion was based in part upon the belief that the fund is so small that, even should the income be accumulated for many years to come, it would never be possible to establish a home for more than a limited number of persons. An equally impelling factor was our conviction that the day for institutions as such has passed, and that modern social methods call for financial assistance to elderly people of such a nature as would enable the recipients to maintain their independence.

Accordingly, the committee recommended, and our Diocesan Convention of 1941 approved, that the Philadelphia Orphans' Court be petitioned to vary the terms of Mrs. Jefferies' will, and direct the surviving trustee to distribute the income from the fund to such needy elderly clergymen and their wives as may be designated from time to time by the Bishop of Pennsylvania. The actual machinery of designating the recipients of the income under our plan remained to be determined, but it was our thought that, because of his proximity to the trustee (a local trust company) and the court, the Bishop of Pennsylvania could best act as intermediary between the needy clergymen and their wives and the trustee. It is our belief that this plan would result in financial assistance to a far greater number of persons than would the establishment of the home.

A petition was presented to the court, and hearings were held before the Master, Lloyd J. Schmucker, Esq., who filed a report embodying a decree directing the accountant, as surviving trustee, not to establish a home as provided in the will, but to apply the net income derived from the present balances of principal and accrued income for the maintenance of old or infirm clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and their wives, the amounts and times of such payments to be in the discretion of the trustee, and the beneficiaries to be selected by the trustee from the group mentioned, with the right in the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Diocese of Pennsylvania to make suggestions to the trustee as to the amounts and times of such payments and the selection of the beneficiaries, such suggestions not to be binding upon the trustee, but to be only for the assistance of the trustee. It is also ordered that the trustee may, if it deems it advisable and for the best interests of the estate, to sell and convey the residence of the testatrix at No. 139 Tulpehocken Street, Germantown, Philadelphia. Also, it is directed that if at any time in the future it should appear to be practical to establish a home such as is contemplated by the will, leave is granted to anyone to file a petition in this court averring such fact and praying that such a home be established.

The adjudication showed that the surviving trustee held on account of principal the sum of $281,186.23 and a balance of accumulated income of $61,885.73, making a total of $343,071.96.

It had been the intention of the advisers to recommend their discharge, now that the principle for which they contended had been established; but in view of the decree of the court that the allocation of the money to the beneficiaries was left in the hands of the trustee, a trust company, it is felt that they should be continued, or others appointed to take their places, to co-operate with the Bishop in the event of a difference of opinion.

We are attaching to this report, with the request that it be made a part thereof, the Master's Report and the Adjudication of the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS S. GATES,
CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF,
Advisers.

APPENDIX R

Report of the Diocesan War Commission

During the summer of 1942 the War Commission appointed a special committee consisting of Frederick R. Drayton, Lewis N. Lukens, Jr., William L. Randall, and Thomas B. K. Ringe, Chairman. This Committee after careful study recommended that the War Commission be reorganized. Bishop Taitt, therefore, appointed in January, 1943, Bishop Hart, Chairman of the new Commission. The members of the new Commission are the following: Lewis N. Lukens, Jr., Executive Vice-Chairman; Thomas B. K. Ringe, Esq., Vice-Chairman; Frederick R. Drayton, Vice-Chairman; Rev. E. Felix Kloman, Secretary; Sanford D. Beecher, Esq., Controller; Mrs. James T. Davis; Mrs. P. Blair Lee; Rev. Edmund B. Wood; Rev. John Craig Roak, Executive Director.

A complete survey of all the Service Centers operating for men in the Armed Forces was made by the Commission in preparation for the establishment of a Diocesan Center in this city. In addition an exhaustive survey was made of all the Federal Housing Projects which have been completed within the Diocese, in order that the Commission might design a strategy whereby the Church might extend bases of operation among the large industrial population moving into these newly designed communities.

On March 9th at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, a Campaign Dinner was held in co-operation with the Army and Navy Commission of the National Church, to appeal to the parishes of the Diocese for support of the work the Church is doing among our Service Men and our Chaplains. Over 200 clergymen and laymen, representing 102 parishes, heard the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, D.D., Chairman of our Army and Navy Commission, explain what the Church is doing to provide pension premiums, discretionary funds, service books, and portable altars, to the Chaplains, and communication with our communicants in our camps.

On March 28th the appeal was made to the parishes, and at this writing over $30,000 was received. From these collections 60% of this sum is the contribution which the Diocese of Pennsylvania makes to the Army and Navy Commission for its work. The remaining 40% is being used in work which the Commission is conducting in this Diocese.

When the Commission realized how wholeheartedly parishes were standing behind this worthy cause, the Community House of St. Stephen's Parish, 10th Street below Market Street, was chosen as the logical center for a Diocesan Service Club for men on leave in the Armed Forces here in Philadelphia. Through the gracious co-operation of the rector, wardens, and vestry of St. Stephen's Church, the Commission was able to prepare to open this Club immediately. The Board of Managers was selected, composed of Mrs. P. Blair Lee, Chairman; Thomas B. K. Ringe, Esq.; Mr. I. Smith Raspin; Mrs. W. Emory Burnett; Mrs. C. William Spiess; Mrs. Marsh; Mrs. James T. Davis, Treasurer; Mrs. Mary Van Hook, Directress, and Mr. Curtis L. Clay. This Board includes in its membership representatives of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Churchman's Club, Girls' Friendly Society, and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the latter to be appointed later.

On April 14th St. Stephen's Service Club was opened under the auspices of the Diocesan War Commission, after the Community House had been completely renovated. The Club is open from 3 P. M. to midnight every day, and is managed by representatives of all our Diocesan organizations. It has answered a great need, because it has met with automatic and enthusiastic response by the Service Men who are attending it in large numbers.

Similar activities are being conducted in various parishes throughout the Diocese. At Trinity Church, West Chester, a Center for men of the Army Postal Service School has been operating daily since November, 1942, and has the wholehearted support of the parishioners and residents of the community.

At St. Peter's, Phoenixville, and at Gloria Dei, Philadelphia, weekly evenings are available for Service Men.

A corps of laymen at Holy Trinity Church, and Gloria Dei, have brought over 1,000 men to their respective parishes, to their services each Sunday.

The Commission has appointed a Committee composed of Canon Earp, Chairman; Rev. Edmund B. Wood, and Rev. Alfred Wm. Price, to prepare a manual to be used by the clergy for Special Services which the war has created. For instance—For Inductees, For Those Returning From Perilous Services, A Casualty in the Parish, etc.

Under the direction of Miss Emma E. Brehm, volunteer secretary in the office of the War Commission, 4924 names of men from the parishes have been card indexed; 5,413 Church War Crosses have been distributed, and 3,361 Army and Navy Prayer Books have been sent forth from the Commission office. Last Christmas 4,028 Christmas letters were forwarded to the men in the Services from this office, from Bishop Taitt and Bishop Hart.

The Commission is preparing a Committee to undertake the task of bringing the Church in direct contact with the residents of Federal Housing Projects, who are engaged in the war industries in Philadelphia. Thus far three rectors have blazed the way for us. The Rev. Leonard J. Sachs has established a Church School at Hatboro. The Rev. John A. Cragg and his laymen have canvassed the Hiil Creek Project and have acquired 23 families for the parish and 25 children for the Church School. The Rev. James C. Gilbert in conjunction with the pastors in his community, have surveyed Bartram Village, and discovered the need of a Church School in that project.

It is hoped that this Committee will be able to create in the near future a strategy with which to approach this problem, and make our work in these Centers a real home missionary field of the future.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN CRAIG ROAK,
Executive Director.

APPENDIX S

Report of Committee on Seal of the Diocese

The Committee reported to Convention of 1942 (JNL., p. 349) and was continued with instructions to report further at Convention of 1943 (JNL., p. 47).

The Committee now reports that it has conferred with Mr. Charles Borie who had written to members of the committee making friendly criticisms of its proposals. It has revised its draft of a new seal twice and has under consideration further conferences with Mr. Borie and others who may be interested.

The letter which the Bishop of Pennsylvania addressed under date of June 11, 1942, to the Heralds College with reference to the proposed new seal, transmitting one from Mr. Francis A. Pocock, Chairman of the Committee on the Seal dated June 8, 1942, was acknowledged by the Heralds Office under date of July 25, 1942. Copies of these two letters are appended at the end of this report. The Chairman of the Committee has since then heard that Queen Victoria Street, London, where the Heralds Office is, has been bombed and that fact is quite probably the explanation of the fact that no word has come from the College.

Under date of April 20, 1943, the Chairman of the Committee wrote again to the Heralds College; a copy of this letter is also appended.

The Committee suggests that it be continued with power to add to its numbers so that it may have the advantage of the assistance of additional persons who are interested in its proposals. It therefore submits the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Committee be continued for further study and report to Convention of 1944, with power to add to its membership.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated April 20, 1943.

June 11, 1942.

Gentlemen: I take pleasure in writing this letter of introduction for Mr. Francis A. Pocock, the signer of the letter enclosed with mine. He is, as he states, a member of a Committee charged with considering and reporting to Diocesan Convention of 1943 upon a proposed new Seal for this Diocese.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) FRANCIS M. TAITT,
Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Heralds College,
Queen Victoria Street,
Westminster, London, England.

June 8, 1942.

Gentlemen: The undersigned is a member of a duly appointed committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, United States of America, empowered to bring before the Convention of the Diocese which will assemble in May, 1943, a proposal for the adoption of a new Diocesan Seal to replace the present one, believed to be erroneous heraldically. The Committee in question has reported to the Convention held in May, 1942. I enclose herewith for your information, a copy of its report, the resolution appended to which (page six) continuing the Committee for further report to the Convention of 1943, was duly adopted.

After the report had been printed the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the Rt. Rev. Francis M. Taitt, was honored by the receipt of letters from the Archbishop of Canterbury, from the Bishops of Bath and Wells, and Peterborough, and from the office of the Archbishop of York, copies of which are herewith enclosed.

Until it shall have received finally the approval of the Convention of the Diocese to be held in May, 1943, the Committee is not authorized to make formal application of any kind to the Heralds College. But the Committee believes that it might be conclusive of debate were it possible to present to Convention in 1943 a letter from the Heralds College stating that there appears to be no reason why letters patent should not issue for the proposed new Seal.

For the purpose of obtaining the correction in advance of any errors which may exist in our proposed new seal, and of obtaining a statement that the seal as finally corrected in accordance with any suggestions which you may make, is in proper form, we are now addressing ourselves to you.

A reply may be addressed to Mr. Francis A. Pocock, Church House, Diocese of Pennsylvania, 202 South 19th Street, Philadelphia.

I beg to enclose herewith also a letter from the Bishop of Pennsylvania certifying to my connection with the Committee on Seal, and with the Diocese.

You of course know that the first Bishop of Pennsylvania, William White, was the first American Bishop to be consecrated in England. You may not know that Bishop White was the consecrator of 26 out of the 27 first American Bishops.

Faithfully yours,
(Signed) FRANCIS A. POCOCK.

From

The College of Arms,
Queen Victoria St., London, E. C. 4
25th July, 1942.

My Lord Bishop:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 11th of June last, addressed to the Heralds College, enclosing a letter from Mr. Francis A. Pocock of Philadelphia, and other enclosures, with reference to the proposed new Seal for the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The matter has been referred to the Kings of Arms, from whom you will hear in due course.

I have the honour to be
Your Lordship's obedient servant,
(Signed) AUBREY J. TOPPIN, York Herald.

The Right Reverend Francis M. Taitt, D.D.,
Lord Bishop of Pennsylvania,
Church House, 202 S. 19th St., Philadelphia, U. S. A.

April 20, 1943.

Mr. Aubrey J. Toppin, York Herald,
The College of Arms,
Queen Victoria Street, London, E. C., 4.

Dear Mr. Toppin: I have before me your favor of July 25, 1942, to the Right Reverend Francis M. Taitt, D.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania, in which you acknowledge receipt of his letter of June 11, 1942, and of mine of June 8th, and other enclosures transmitted with it, all with reference to the proposed new Seal for the Diocese of Pennsylvania. You were kind enough to say that the matter had been referred to the Kings of Arms and that the Bishop would hear from them in due course.

No word has come from the Kings of Arms, doubtless because of the enemy action, which I have been distressed to hear did such damage in Victoria Street. I therefore venture to write you now again, to ask whether the Bishop's letter of June 11, 1942, addressed to the Heralds College, is still extant, and to say that if action has not yet been taken up on it, action may now be suspended pending a revision here in the form of the proposed new Seal.

I have the honour to be
Yours very sincerely,
FRANCIS A. POCOCK.

APPENDIX T

Report of the Commission on Church Unity

Since the report of the Commission on Unity to the Diocesan Convention of 1942, the Joint Commission on Approaches to Unity of the General Convention has in concert with the Department of Church Cooperation and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, issued a proposal entitled "Basic Principles Proposed for the Union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A. Together with Suggested Cooperative Arrangements." Copies of these "Basic Principles" were sent by the Commission on Unity to the clergy of the Diocese, requesting that they study them with their people, and are being made available for the lay delegates to the Diocesan Convention.

The Commission has studied the "Basic Principles" at its own meetings. The Commission has also held a number of meetings with representatives of the three Presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. that roughly cover the same area as this Diocese. At these meetings the "Basic Principles" has been thoroughly and openly discussed from all points of view. The Commission is happy to report that these discussions with our brethren of the Presbyterian Church have been extremely helpful and illuminating, and are agreed that they should continue.

The Commission is agreed that the Joint Commission on Approaches to Unity of the General Convention should be asked to recommend ways by which the people of the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches may be more fully informed on matters of faith, worship, and government as they are held in the two Churches, and may be further informed as to the need for unity in the Church of God.

The importance of enlarging the area of theological and historical exploration is recognized. The Commission also recognizes the necessity of encouraging further education of both Churches in the implications of the proposed reunion. Such exploration and education should, however, be carried on conjointly with such negotiations as are at present being pursued.

The Commission is agreed in asking that it be continued for further study, cooperating with the Joint Commission on Approaches to Unity, and report to the next regular meeting of this Convention.

During the past year the Rev. Harvey Butterfield, a valued member of this Commission, resigned when he left this Diocese to take work in the Diocese of Vermont. Mr. Robert C. Belleville, III, a helpful member of the Commission since its appointment in 1939, resigned when he took a commission in the United States Army. The Bishop appointed the Rev. Leicester C. Lewis to take the place made vacant by the Rev. Harvey Butterfield's resignation. General William G. Price has been appointed by the Bishop to take the place made vacant by Mr. Belleville's resignation, but his appointment came too late to enable him to take part in any of the Commission's deliberations. The vacancy created by the death of the Rev. Granville Taylor was filled by the appointment of the Rev. Frederick W. Blatz, who has served as Secretary of the Commission.

In the course of the Commission's discussion, it became evident that the Commission could not agree on a report all could sign. Though there is a large area of agreement as indicated in this report, the Commission does not agree in its conclusions regarding the proposal known as "Basic Principles." The minority are not therefore signing this report, but handing in their own report separately.

The undersigned members of the Commission would point out that it is the declared purpose of the General Convention to achieve organic unity with the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A. in accordance with the resolution of that Convention in its meeting in the year 1937, in these terms: "The two Churches, one in the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Word of God, recognizing the Holy Scriptures as the Supreme Rule of faith, accepting the two sacraments ordained by Christ, and believing that the visible Unity of Christ's Church is the Will of God, hereby formally declare their purpose to achieve organic union between their respective Churches."

The negotiations of the Joint Commission on Approaches to Unity with the Department of Church Cooperation and Union have resulted in the proposals contained in the document known as "Basic Principles." We believe that these negotiations have been conducted under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, with due regard to the fundamental principles laid down in the Lambeth Quadrilateral of 1888; and also with the most careful, painstaking, and prayerful study. "Basic Principles" embodies the considered judgment of representative theologians and scholars of both Churches, and supersedes the former proposals of a temporary nature known respectively as the Concordat and Joint Ordination. The present proposals seek to set forth the nature of the United Church. If agreed upon, they would clear the way for definite steps to be taken to achieve the organic union declared to be the purpose of the General Convention of 1937.

We are convinced, after studying "The Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America being its Standard Subordinate to the Word of God, viz., The Confession of Faith, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, the Form of Government, the Book of Discipline, and the Directory for the Worship of God as Ratified and Adopted by the Synod of New York and Philadelphia in the Year of Our Lord 1768 and as amended in the years 1805-1938, together with the Constitutional Rule Adopted in 1912 and General Rules for Judicatories" and the Prayer Book, Articles of Religion, Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, that (1) the doctrines of the two Churches are in sufficient agreement to make union possible; and (2) that the proposals in "Basic Principles" do no violence to either Church. We are convinced further that when union is achieved neither Church will be absorbed by the other; but that each, contributing of its best, will make the uniting Church something they could not be in and of themselves. We therefore offer the following resolutions:

1. RESOLVED, That this Convention commends the document of the Joint Commission on Approaches to Unity known as "Basic Principles" as a basis of continued negotiations towards fulfilling the declared purpose of General Convention to achieve organic union between the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America and the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America;

That the Joint Commission be asked to confer further to frame specific legislation in order that it may be seen what is concretely involved in the proposals contained in the document entitled "Basic Principles";

That the Joint Commission be requested to seek the advice and counsel of the Lambeth Conference concerning these and any subsequent proposals which may be made;

That the Joint Commission be asked to recommend in what ways the people of the two Churches may be more fully informed on matters of faith, worship and government as they are held in the two Churches; and may be further informed as to the need for unity in the Church of God.

2. RESOLVED, That this Commission be continued for further study and report to the 1944 Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMISSION ON CHURCH UNITY,
C. C. MORRIS,
FREDERICK W. BLATZ, Secretary,
E. FELIX KLOMAN, Chairman.

APPENDIX U

Minority Report Commission on Church Unity

The minority members of the Diocesan Committee on Unity wish in the first place to express our high appreciation of the Christian character of the representatives of the Presbyterian Church, with whom our Committee has been meeting. Their loyalty to their Communion and to the tradition to which they owe allegiance has called forth our profound respect.

Secondly, we are convinced that these informal and heart-to-heart conversations between Presbyterians and ourselves are distinctly valuable and should be continued. Indeed, we should like to see this same procedure carried on in regard to other Communions, with certain of which we are in far greater doctrinal agreement than we are with the Presbyterians.

We are unable, however, to recommend to the Convention any approval of the Basic Principles Plan for two reasons:

1. Theologically, it contradicts the faith of the Undivided Church as to the Ministry of the Church. To this faith the Anglican Communion from the time of the Reformation has steadfastly and constantly appealed. It is an historic and a recognized Anglican principle, which we have repeatedly asserted against Rome, that in matters of faith no one part of the Church has the right to disregard the rest of the Church. We can hardly proclaim this against Rome and repudiate it with Presbyterians.

2. In reality, there is no Plan before us for either approval or disapproval. Even while our present conversations were being held, we were informed authoritatively that as changes in the Plan had been urged both by Presbyterians and ourselves, unquestionably the Plan which would be presented to General Convention would be different from the Plan recently issued. On such a serious subject as Christian Unity to give a blank check of approval to a Plan not yet definitely formulated, and which we have not yet seen, is no compliment to the integrity of conscientious Christians.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That our Convention be asked to approve continuation of our conversations with Presbyterians in regard to organic union.

LEICESTER C. LEWIS,
CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF.

APPENDIX V

Report of the Board of Examining Chaplains

The Board organized on May 18th, electing the Rev. Walter C. Pugh as Chairman and the Rev. Richard J. Morris as Secretary. At a later meeting the resignation of Mr. Morris was accepted with regret and his work as Secretary was divided between the Chairman and the Rev. Dr. John R. Huggins. Regular examinations were held in Thanksgiving and Easter weeks and several special examinations at other times.

The following were recommended to the Bishop and Standing Committee:

Postulants to be Admitted Candidates

Eugene Evans Botelho
Ernest Emile Bruder

APPENDIX W

Report of the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library

The Board of Control of the Diocesan Library reports that during the past year Miss Gillin has continued to serve faithfully and successfully as Librarian.

In addition to a number of volumes received from the libraries of the late Rev. Messrs. Halsey and Taylor, 52 books have been purchased and the circulation reached 1,500 volumes. The magazine rack has been filled with such periodicals as seemed most in demand. A new and more efficient rack has been purchased and placed in the reading room.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER C. PUGH,
Secretary.

APPENDIX X

Report of the Commission on Music

The Commission on Music organized after last Convention by electing the undersigned as Chairman and Mr. H. William Hawke as Secretary and Treasurer.

Members of the Commission gave courses at the Diocesan Summer Conference at Ursinus College and at the Diocesan Normal School.

Because of the unusual conditions due to the war it was deemed wisest to confine our activities largely to those mentioned above.

In conclusion, the Commission presents the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Music be continued with power to fill vacancies and to add to its number.

Respectfully submitted,

N. HERBERT CALEY,
Chairman.
